

BAND ACTIVITY WANTED BY 287 COUNTY STUDENTS

Miss Hickman Attends National Youth Conference

Anne Lynn Hickman, Glenville junior high student and daughter of Mrs. Linn Hickman, Glenville high school librarian, attended the President's White House Conference on Children and Youth at Washington, December 3-7.

ANNE LYNNE HICKMAN

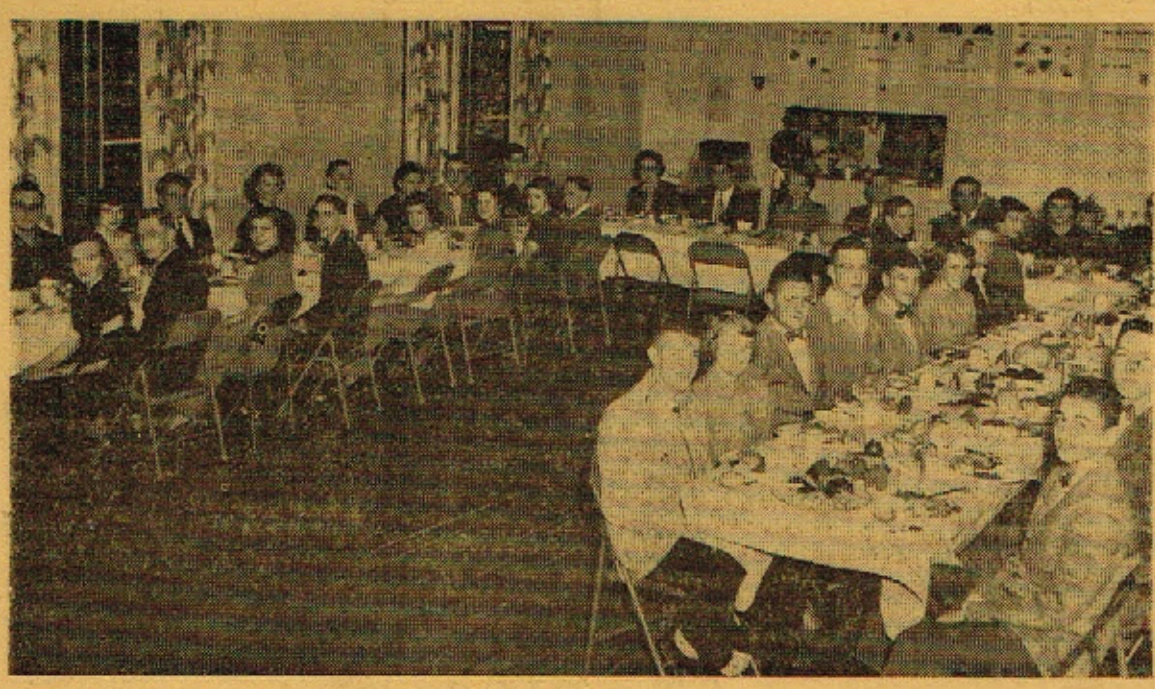

Miss Hickman, who is twelve years of age, will be the youngest of West Virginia's 47 delegates and probably the youngest one in the U. S. The delegates are ordinarily 16 years of age or older.

She is a representative in the Glenville high school student council and is active in young people's work in the church and 4-H club. She writes a weekly column for the Glenville Democrat.

The White House Conference is called by the president of the U. S. each ten years. The first in 1910 by Theodore Roosevelt, the second in 1920 by Woodrow Wilson, the third in 1930 by Herbert Hoover, the fourth by Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1940, and this one by Harry S. Truman.

The delegates of this conference discussed problems of youth and needed legislation.

County grade school teachers held a meeting at Sand Fork, Nov. 15.

Football Mothers Serve Turkey At Red Terror Banquet

Pictured above are members of the Glenville high school football squad, cheerleaders, coach of the Red Terrors, and guests who enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner served by mothers of the football boys, at the football banquet held in the hot lunch room. The event marked the close of a good grid season for the Terrors, who won four games, lost five, and tied one. Coach Wolfe presided as master of ceremonies.

Mr. Linn B. Hickman was the guest speaker at the banquet. Mr. Hickman stated, "Sports in Glenville have always been clean. Let's keep them that way!" Mr. Hickman also recited an original poem describing the football boys, coach, cheerleaders, and the games.

Letter certificates which were earned during football season were awarded to the following boys: Tommy Hyer, Bob Reed, Bill Boggs, Bill Woodyard, Dick Varner, Bill Dodd, Bud Huff, John Shock, Bill Stout, Dominic Nocida, Bernard Ellyson, John Cain, manager; Denzil Huff, Cecil Reaser, Haymond Boggs, and David Reed.

LARGE PERCENT OF OLD GRADS ATTEND COLLEGE

A large percentage of Glenville high school graduates have enrolled in Glenville state college in the past five years, according to Principal Stennett. The statistics:

1950, 66.7%; 1949, 72.72%; 1948, 69.56%; 1947, 70.83%; 1946, 78.57%.

Dorothy Hogue Is Queen At Carnival Held November 17

A record breaking amount, $548.13, was made at the Glenville high school carnival, Friday, November 17. Over four hundred people were present to see the main event of the evening — the crowning of Dorothy Hogue, seventh grader, daughter of County agent and Mrs. Harlan Hogue, as Carnival Queen. She was elected by the students and the town folk at one cent per vote. Linda Floyd, sixth grade student, served as crown bearer. The other members of the queen's court were: Wanema Davidson, senior; Susan Arnold, junior; Carolyn Wilson, sophomore; Louise Meadows, freshman; and Jerry Lee Harbour, eighth grade. Principal Stennett crowned the queen.

Another big event of the evening was the amateur contest in which about thirty-five students took part.

Prizes for the bingo stand and various stands were donated by the Ludwik glass factory. Food sold at the carnival was donated by the parents and students.

Following is the amount received by the various concessions.

TEST GIVEN

A research problem test on vocational preference was given Tuesday, December 12, to Glenville high school students by the Library Science class of Glenville state college taught by Mr. Floyd Miller, assistant librarian.

Gerry McGinnis was a Saturday shopper in Weston.

Survey Conducted In High Schools By Satellite Staff

Several Instruments Of Former Glenville Band May Be Used

A recent survey conducted throughout the high schools in Gilmer county by the Satellite staff shows that 287 students are interested in participating in a Gilmer county band, should one be organized. The five high schools reported interested students in this manner: Tanner high school, 40; Troy high school, 43; Sand Fork high school, 63; Normantown high school, 66; and Glenville high school, 75.

Twelve uniforms and eleven band instruments, formerly used in the now defunct Gilmer county band, have been located by members of the Satellite staff.

Members of the Gilmer County Board of Education recently expressed their willingness to cooperate in the reorganization of a band.

A few years ago there was a band in Glenville high school but because of the lack of interest and directors, it was discontinued. Mrs. Phyllis Rohrbough, who took Mr. Samuel Stewart's position, was the last band director here.

Subscription Drive May Be Cancelled

"Because we have not heard from the representative of Curtis Publishing Co. about the magazine subscription campaign," says Mrs. Lestelle Murphy, student council sponsor and teacher at Glenville high school, "and as it is so near Christmas, I think it would be unwise to try to sell subscriptions at this time."

Magazines to be sold are: McCall's, Esquire, American Girl, Time, Coronet, Etude, Red Book, Charm, Good Housekeeping, Holiday, Post, and many others.

The Josten Company, in appreciation of the contract for graduation exercises presented by Glenville high school the picture "Winter in New England," painted by Kautzky.

First Band In Gilmer County Was Led By Frank Beall And Will Kee

The first band in Gilmer County had its beginning a great many years ago when Frank Beall and Will Kee had two separate bands here made up of small boys who were interested in playing musical instruments.

When Earl R. Boggs, came here in 1933, there was no band. In 1935, however, the Gilmer county board of education hired Frank Beall as a county band instructor. Mr. Beall served from 1935 to 1941. In 1941 Samuel Stewart came to Gilmer county as band instructor replacing Mr. Beall. In March 1942 Mr. Stewart was inducted into the army, again leaving a vacancy.

Mrs. Phyllis Rohrbough then came to teach in Glenville high taking Mr.

Stewart's place as band director. Mrs. Rohrbough continued the remainder of the year. The band has been discontinued since then.

Lights And Bleachers To Be Added To Field

According to Mr. Roland Butcher, county superintendent of schools, progress is being made on the arrangement for construction of bleachers and installation of lights on Glenville high school's new athletic field.

Plans for a new type of concrete bleacher, less expensive than those recently installed at Rohrbough Sta.

WHEN BOATS WERE KINGS

Mr. Smith, High School Teacher, Believes All Students To Be Alike

"Kids are kids no matter where they are," replied Mr. Denzil Smith, new commercial teacher of Glenville high school...

Mr. Smith previously taught two years of social studies and commerce at Burnsville.

The subject he likes to teach best is bookkeeping. He believes that high school graduates should take commercial work only if they desire to do so...

graduates specializing in a specific field.

Mr. Smith served three months in the U. S. Army at Randolph Field San Antonio, Texas during World War II and served two years in the U. S. Navy in the Pacific during the war.

The past July Mr. Smith married Miss Glenda Cowan, a resident of his home town of West Union. Mrs. Smith teaches in the Greenwood elementary school in Doddridge county.

Virginia Hall Was First Instructor Of Journalism In Glenville High School

Did you ever wonder why a framed picture of a newspaper called the Gilco is hanging in room 13? This paper was the first paper to be published in a Gilmer county high school.

When the publishing of the Gilco was discontinued in 1935, schools published individual papers such as the Satellite of Glenville high school. Miss Virginia Hall, who is now the fifth grade teacher, was the first instructor of the journalism class which published a paper.

teacher. Miss Pickens taught journalism until 1944 when she was transferred to Tanner high school. During the absence of Miss Pickens, Mr. Earl Boggs, who was the principal at that time, replaced her.

In the school year 1947-48 there was no paper printed. With the coming of Couch Wolfe in 1948, the Satellite was printed once more and is still sponsored by him.

When the Satellite was under the direction of Mr. Wolfe, Randall Luzader and Richard Dean Riddle were the first editors. Last year Christine Hyer was the editor.

Rafael Munoz, Native Puerto Rican, Addresses Eighth Grade History Class

"Puerto Rico is a small island but very scenic," said Mr. Rafael Munoz, a native of that country, now a student in Glenville college, as he addressed the eighth grade students December 6.

"At one time gold was very plentiful there, but the Spaniards took most of it with them when they returned to Spain. The mining of gold in Puerto Rico is very expensive now."

"Sugar cane, grown in large plantations, is the chief crop. The island has poor educational and medical system, but they are being improved. The housing program is also inefficient. Fifteen industries have been established in the past few years, but because the country is so overcrowded, there is still a shortage of jobs."

When asked what kind of climate that was present in Puerto Rico, Mr. Munoz said, "The temperature is seldom over 78 degrees or under 67."

Some other points brought out in Munoz's talk were the draft age which is from 18 to 25 and the amount of tourist trade which his country boasts.

The children in Puerto Rico have both the father's and mother's last name, the father's name coming second, said Munoz.

He was invited to speak here by Mr. Ray Waldo, student teacher from the college.

High School Library Receives New Books

"Approximately 40 new books have been received in the Glenville high school library recently," says Mrs. Hickman, high school librarian.

The new books received include: books on folk lore, to be used in English classes; home economics; social studies, and mathematics.

Two of the new books, "With A Feather On My Nose" and "Strike-out Story" are biographies by Billie Burke and Bob Feller.

Some of the new books received were published last year. These books are "Come Be My Love" by Louinia Davis; "Spurs of Suzanna" by Betty Cavanna; "Pilgrim Kate," by Helen Dorlinger; and "Sarah", by Marqueritte Brothers.

Other fiction books of special interest are "National Velvet," by Enid Bagnold; "The Black Stallion Returns," and "Son Of The Black Stallion", by Walter Farley.

"The Uncertain Age" has been chosen by the junior class of Glenville high school for their class play. "Work will begin as soon as the play books arrive, and if possible the play will be produced the last of November," says junior sponsor, Miss Woodford.

Mr. Campbell Speaks On Social Security

To explain the new social security law including how collections and payments are made was the main purpose of a talk in a Glenville high school assembly Wednesday, Nov. 15, by Mr. Campbell from the social security office in Clarksburg.

To explain these new laws he used a fictitious character, whom he called John. He told how John grew up and the many different ways that his life could have taken place. He also illustrated how social security found a place in his life and that of the rest of his family.

Mr. Campbell said, "Most of the worries that people have are caused by death, old age, disability, and unemployment."

He brought out that most of these worries could be at least partly relieved by social security.

He asked how many students had social security cards because he stated, "They will be needed in getting a job."

College Students In Directed Teaching

Nine student teachers have begun observing teaching procedures in Glenville high school. They will observe and teach the next nine weeks throughout the entire day. Mr. Nelson Wells, former Sand Fork teacher, is their instructor.

Miss Ruth Talbot, biology 10, home ec, 9-10; Miss Joann Nash, arithmetic 7,8, 9; algebra I, plane geometry; Mr. William Torlidas, science 8, English 7; Miss Joann world history 10, American history Homer Moore, American Government 11-12, history 8, civics 9, American history 11-12; Miss Nellie Boggs, biology 10, geography 7, World History 10, American history 11-12; Ray Waldo, American government 11-12, history 8, phy. ed. 7, 8, 9, American history 11-12, Herbert Keeney, typing, bookkeeping; and Rita Furr, English 8, 10, 11

Long-Long Ago

1936 The senior class of Glenville high school sponsored a fair Friday evening, May 7, in the high school building. Special features were a fashion show, German Band, and a free show.

Nelson Craddock, of Glenville was one of the Golden Horseshoe winners, held in Glenville April 23, 1939

Warren Lamb was a victorious candidate in an election held for member-at-large of the student council when the polls closed Friday September 16. His two opponents were June Wilson and Eloise Wolfe.

The Glenville Red Terrors walloped Normantown 13-0 Saturday to retain the Gilmer County Championship which they have held for four years.

22 Home Room Mothers Chosen

Home room mothers were chosen November 2, for the grades from the first through the twelfth. They are: First, Mrs. Clark Wolfe, Mrs. Leroy Stennett; second, Mrs. Jesse Floyd, Mrs. Ernest Montgomery; third, Mrs. Elsworth Wolfe, Mrs. Emma Reed; fourth, Mrs. R. E. Baccus, Mrs. Everett Stoneking; fifth, Mrs. Russel Williams, Mrs. Waitman Brown; sixth, Mrs. Coy Hinkle, Mrs. L. H. Gibson.

Junior and senior high, seventh, Mrs. Haymon Boggs, Mrs. Emmett Hull; eighth, Mrs. Herman Post, Mrs. Bill Woodyard; ninth, Mrs. Ed Mackey; tenth, Mrs. John Shock, Mrs. Carmelo Nocida; eleventh, Mrs. French Boggs, Mrs. Simon Arnold; twelfth, Mrs. Audy Davidson.

Satellite Will Enter Newspaper Contest

The Satellite, Glenville high school publication, will enter the 29th annual State competition of West Virginia High School News-Periodicals, conducted by the School of Journalism of West Virginia University. Competition Director is Dr. P. I. Reed, Director of the school of Journalism of West Virginia University.

The Satellite, in 1948-49, won First Honors High School Publication with a score of more than 1110 points, and in 1949-50 won the Select High School Publication with a score between 1075 and 1110 points in the contest.

Will Raise Money For Girls To Camp

Members of the F. H. A. will sell pincushion bracelets and vanilla extract, it was decided in a meeting held in the home economics room Tuesday, November 14. Purpose of the sale is to send local girls to F. H. A. camp and for donation on improving camps. State and national dues are to be collected.

"As there were so many other activities, only five members were present," said Mrs. Butcher, sponsor.

In the first meeting the following officers were elected: president, Susan Arnold; vice-president, Patty Hardman; secretary, Kay O' Brian; treasurer, Wanema Davidson; song leader, Louise Meadows; historian, Edwina Mackey; parliamentarian, Jean Connor; reporter, Betty Turner.

"Captain Kidd," three reel movie was shown for Glenville grade school and high school students Tuesday, December 12.

STUDENT STATICS

By Gypsy Rose Now that the hustle and bustle of the carnival is over and everything is getting back to normal, let's have a look into the student activities.

"Baby, it's cold outside." For the past few days the mercury has been feeling mighty low. Students enjoyed a vacation of nine days due to bad weather.

Common Knowledge "We can not escape history," says Abe Lincoln. That's true, you have to have three years of it.

When a girl's young, she spends a lot of time trying to look older; when she's old, she tries to look young.

In Hollywood wives treat their husbands like babies. They keep changing them.

Student Characteristics Maynard Ellyson's quiet disposition. Joe Floyd's short hair. Betty Turner's happy-go-lucky personality.

Bill Dodd's white-toothed smile. Louise Smith's habit (Kenneth Starrett)

New Twosomes Sue Arnold and Don DeVaughn. Eleanor Bell and Billy Hewitt. Carolyn Wilson and Leonard Montgomery.

Just Funnin' Judy: Men make me tired! Trudy: Then quit chasing them.

Dumbell: Why did the little moron walk softly in front of the medicine cabinet? Anybell: So he wouldn't wake the sleeping pills.

Have You Noticed? Ferman Lee Rhoades' quilted green jacket? John Jamison's curly hair? Louise Meadow's and Patty Floyd's wool jersey blouses? Dora Dulaney's new hair cut?

What Would Happen If - Billy Joe was a Chopit instead of a Hewitt? Buena was Lead instead of Steele? Jack was a Goldking instead of a Stoneking? Bill was Streets instead of Rhoades? Jimmy was Wool instead of Furr?

Many of the high school students enjoyed their vacation by sleigh riding down court house hill.

The Editors Desk

Leave November, come December in Glenville high while the interest changes from football to basketball. After ending the football season with the annual Burnsville game, the football boys were given a banquet by their mothers in the hot lunch room. The banquet was a big success, with the exception of Tommy Hyer breaking a gourd.

Recognizing the high school building was difficult while at the carnival Friday, November 17. With every kind of stands, penny pitching to a baseball throw, the rooms somewhat resembled the midway of a fair. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Carnival Queen, Dorothy Hogue, seventh grader.

What glorious holidays! Even being isolated wasn't too bad when school was delayed for six days after Thanksgiving vacation due to the 41 inch snow and the 29 foot flood. Anyway there was plenty of time to plan for Christmas.

Happening to think that Christmas is just around the corner, maybe we'd all better get together and plan for a shindig during the holidays. Plenty of couples could be found such as: Denzil Huff and Reta Carolyn Frymier, Bill Dodd and Doris Jean Ashcraft, Wanema Davidson and Jacky Cawthorn, Billy Joe Woodyard, or Bill Boggs (My, that girl certainly keeps them all interested!), Louise Smith and Kenneth Starrett, Patricia Greenleaf and John Cain, Patty Floyd and Cecil Reaser (This is a new case), and Ferman Rhoades and Mally Ann Mackey.

The junior class is practicing their class play, "The Uncertain Age," with added zest as the date for presenting it draws nearer. Anxious people await the performance of the "unnatural" talent belonging to Betty Turner, Tommy Hyer, Josephine Wenzel, and Jean Conner.

Will the accidental (?) breaker of one coke bottle recently broken in the journalism office please pay Homer Holloway his two cents deposit?

The sophomore class had the highest attendance for the month of November with 97.2 per cent. The other classes were as follows: seniors - 95.0, juniors - 96.6, freshman 96.0, eighth grade - 91.9, seventh grade - 94.4.

The manual training department of Glenville high school received a new shipment of tools Tuesday, December 12.

Red Terrors Down Two Conference Foes

Reed Leads In Terror Scoring

Edge Clay Panthers For Second CWVC Triumph

With victories over Sand Fork and Clay chalked up, the Red Terrors are awaiting the arrival of three conference foes in the next few days. One tilt will come before Christmas while the other two will be played after the holidays.

On December 19 the local five will entertain the Troy Trojans in the college gym. The Trojans will be paced by holdovers Potit and Royster. Following this encounter, the local squad will take a layoff during the Xmas holidays, but will return to practice December 27, to begin preparation for the Gassaway game January 5. Gassaway should be strong, although they lost three regulars from last year's stellar squad. Two of their leading holdovers will be Gary Boggs and Gary Mullins.

On January 8 the Wolfemen will meet, according to pre-season dope, the chief contender for the county title, the Tanner Bulldogs. The DeKalb quintet, coached by Beecher Reed, will have one of the tallest teams in this section, being paced by three towering lettermen, Cain, Bush, and C. Ellyson.

Terrors Take 55-53 Victory Over Panthers

Bob Reed's game-clinching field goal, which came with about 30 seconds of playing time remaining, spelled victory for the Terrors Tuesday night, December 12, as the locals squeezed out a 55-53 overtime verdict over the Clay Panthers on the Glenville college floor.

Trailing by eight points with less than three minutes to play, the locals, whose scoring attack was bolstered by the sharpshooting of Joe Floyd and Bill Woodyard, squared off with the Panthers at a 49-49 count at the close of the regular 32 minutes of playing time.

Either team could have taken home the bacon at the foul line, as the Terrors converted only 7 out of 16, while Clay cashed in on 15 out of 28 free throws.

SPORT SHORTS

"Bob Turner has returned" was the big news on the local sports scene this week as "Big Bob" decided to leave the Thundering Herd of Marshall to enroll in the Pioneer camp. Bob, one of the best athletes ever to wear a Red Terror uniform and one of the most sought after athletes in Central West Virginia, received offers from at least five different colleges in West Virginia.

Bob started to school at Marshall this year, but changed his mind and came to Glenville at the start of the second nine weeks term. His addition to the Pioneer squad, at the start of the second semester should be felt by other teams in the state conference. He is now only a freshman and will have a great career ahead of him if things work out in his favor. Everyone wishes Bob all the luck in the world.

Dick Barrett and Jack Frame, members of last year's cage squad, are out for the college squad and will probably play on the frosh team under Stanley Hall.

Plans for a Christmas assembly were discussed in the student council meeting Monday, November 20. Each class will contribute a part and the high school chorus will sing selected Christmas carols.

Terrors Outscore Opposition; Yet More Games Are Lost Than Won

It is a rare occasion when a football team outscore its opponents, yet loses more games than it wins. By racking up 174 points in comparison with their opponents' 169 and ending the season with a four won, one tied, and five lost record, the Terrors accomplished this feat for the second consecutive year.

The Terrors made an impressive start as they rolled over the Jane Lew Redskins by a comfortable 26-0 margin. The situation was reversed, however, the following week as the Sutton Blue Devils picked up an easy 38-14 victory from a sluggish Terror eleven which loafed practically the entire game.

After a scoreless first quarter with Ripley, a newcomer to Glenville's schedule, the locals bogged down the rest of the way and absorbed a 28-0 loss. Aided by the absence of several Terror linemen, the Burnsville Bruins, rivals of long standing, came through to tie Glenville 20-20.

The post-war homecoming slate remained clean as the Terrors took the Walton Tigers into camp with a satisfying 41-0 win.

Clay gained an unearned victory as the locals played good ball the first half, but let the panthers shove over two touchdowns in the last six minutes to overcome the 14-6 halftime edge held by the Terrors.

Exhibiting their ability in one of their best defensive games of the season, the Wolfemen went down stubbornly as the Gassaway Elks eked out a skimpy 13-7 advantage. Buckhannon - Upshur high school outclassed the Terrors 28-12 but the locals gave the larger and heavier Upshur squad all the football they could handle for one evening.

Playing in a steady downpour, the Glenville eleven took advantage of the many breaks that came their way to down West Milford 21-6 in a muddy encounter at Bridgeport. The Terrors upped their edge in games 9-6 as they spoiled the Burnsville homecoming by downing the Bruins 19-7 in the traditional Armistic Day battle at Burnsville.

With ten hold-over lettermen from the current campaign, hopes for next year are rather bright. Noticeable gaps will be left in the gridiron team for graduation will claim Bob Reed, Ferren Rhoades, Cecil Reaser, Bill Dodd, Denzil Huff, and Joe Floyd. Next year's lettermen, Haymond Boggs, Bill Boggs, Bill Stout, Bud Huff, Dick Varner, David Reed, Bernard Ellyson, Mimi Nocida, John Shock, and Tom Hyer, will be crowded for positions by Billy Woodyard, Ronald Vanhorn, Bill Rhoades, and Leroy Stennett, all of whom saw limited service the past season.

Terrors Defeat Sand Fork Quintet 59-35

The Lions from Sand Fork didn't roar quite loud enough Friday night December 8, as the Red Terrors rolled to a 59-35 decision over the Layopolis five.

Sand Fork jumped to a 2-0 lead but couldn't keep up the rapid scoring pace set by the fast-breaking Terrors.

Bob Reed, Bill Woodyard, and Joe Floyd led the Glenville attack, while Sharps and Wilmoth bore the brunt of the Lion's offense.

The Terrors converted 9 out of 14 tries at the foul line, while their opponents cashed in on 5 out of 18 chances.

Terrors Defeated By Strong Alumni In Opening Game

Glenville high school's Red Terrors were the victims of a 60-39 shellacking handed them by the towering and experienced Alumni quintet Tuesday night. The Terrors trailed 15-22 at halftime but couldn't keep up the rapid pace set by the sharpshooting "old grads." The ex-Red Terrors featured such stars as the "the four Bobs" (Turner, Whiting, Hardman and Arnold).

Bill Woodyard, Bob Reed, and Bud Huff paced the Terrors' scoring attack which was kept pretty well in check throughout the entire game. Although outclassed tremendously, the Terrors made a fair showing — for their first appearance of the season, considering that most of them have little or no experience.

dium, are to be submitted by the Universal Concrete Company of Clarksburg in the near future.

Meanwhile, the Monongahela Power Company is working on an estimate for the lighting of the new field.

Switching from day to night games has proved quite profitable to other schools, as their revenue is generally upped five to ten times, according to school officials in other parts of the state.

The new field, which measures 500' by 291', will be rather small for baseball, but by having one short outfield, there is the possibility of playing there this season, say school officials.

Mrs. Linn Hickman, Glenville high school English instructor and librarian, chaperoned the cheerleaders to the Glenville-Gassaway football game at Gassaway Friday, October 20, and to Bridgeport November 2.

WEATHER CLOSES SCHOOL

A heavy snow beginning Friday morning, November 24, was the cause of an extended Thanksgiving vacation for the high school and grade school students of Glenville. Because of the snow, students could not be transported to school. The snow, which ended Tuesday, was cleared from the roads and school was to be resumed Monday, December 4, but the melting snow and pelting rains caused the Little Kanawha river to overflow its banks and consequently there was no school until Tuesday, December 5.
