

PAPER STAFF SELLS 69 SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR TOTAL OF $161

Honor Salesmen Are Ted Fultneer, Nell Reed, Johnny Wagner, Miriam McQuain, Karl West.

The magazine subscription campaign sponsored by the journalism class under the supervision of the Curtis Publishing Company, sold 69 subscriptions, totaling $161.

By missing journalism class for two days and working on Saturdays the Satellite group collected enough money to pay the paper out of its present debt and give a great amount of help to the future publications. Every house within Glenville and its suburbs was canvassed, in order to gain all possible subscriptions.

The class was divided into two teams, the boys and girls.
The two groups were contested against each other in a race to see who could sell most subscriptions. The boys won the race by $94.75 to $64.25. A party will be given to the class mem-

Mr. Groundhog Is Not Making His Usual Weather Predictions This Year

By Betty Gainer

Since it is a violation of government regulations to publish weather forecasts, Mr. Groundhog will not be making any predictions this year. But notice carefully tomorrow and you may be able to get what he means.

Before the days of scientific weather forecasting, there were a great many superstitions. One of the most interesting weather superstitions is that about Ground Hog Day.

It is said that the groundhog, or woodchuck, comes out of his burrow on the second day of February. If the day is cloudy, he stays out; anticipating an early spring; if it is sunny and he sees his shadow, he decides that spring is six weeks off. He then crawls back into his bed to finish his winter's nap.

Although this tradition has no basis of fact, the story suggests some of the habits of the little animal. He hibernates in winter and lives in a burrow.

Madison Whiting Likes Navy Fine; Receives Satellite Regularly

"I get the Satellite regularly and this is the only way I have of keeping in touch with the High School," said Fred Madison Whiting, Jr., '33, when interviewed by a reporter recently while on furlough here.

Mr. Whiting, former teacher in Normantown High School and adviser of "Viking News," has been stationed on the U. S.
S New York and has been to the British Isles and Africa. He works in the gunnery office on board and "likes it fine." He said the ship publishes no newspaper of its own. The Communications office picks up broadcasts from the United States and this news is passed on to the sailors by mimeographed sheets which they receive each morning.

Mr. Whiting says the thing he misses most is basket-ball games. "I'd have loved to have seen the Glenville-Weston game," he said.

He is to report to Harvard University for Officers' Training School when he returns.

BUS ROUTES IN GILMER CHECKED BY STATE TO MEET REQUIREMENTS

Marvin Cooper, superintendent of Gilmer County schools, announced at a county principals' meeting Tuesday that Paul Boggs, from the State Department of Education, has checked the bus routes in Gilmer County and that a map report of all scheduled runs has been made and sent to the State Department of Education.

It is on a basis of this report that a study of the transportation system will be made by the State Department of Education and the O. D. T., to meet federal requirements.

hour.

WOLF BADGE AWARDED TO DANE RUFFNER BOGGS

Dick Riddle, Jim Gainer and Roger Cain were awarded Bobcat badges at a meeting Tuesday of the Cub Scouts. The meeting was held at the High School under the direction of Harley Hauman.

The Wolfe Badge, the second the boys can earn, was awarded to Dane Ruffner Boggs. Den One and Den Two gave some stunts.

COUNTY JUNIOR RED CROSS ADOPTS 75 WORLD WAR VETS

Penny-a-Week Campaign Bringing Results; J. R. C. Council Established In High School.

The penny-a-week campaign, sponsored by the Junior Red Cross, is under way in Gilmer County and has already netted a good sum.

Cedarville Junior High has led all other schools in their production for needed materials.
They have completed: A Greeting Card Project, a Program of Painted and Jointed Toys, and some Pillow Cases for the army and navy. The second and third grades at Normantown have brought in $1.23 for soldiers' kits.

Glenville elementary classes are now having a Junior Red Cross Production Period every day. This project is under the supervision of Miss Susan Summers, third grade teacher.

Miss Mary Louise Lewis, Gilmer County JRC chairman, remarked that the response has been good from all parts of the county. The JRC has made 75 kit bags for the army and has produced 48 different types of garments for the armed forces.

Miss Lewis has also organized a Junior Red Cross Council, composed of the class presidents, with the senior president appointed chairman of the group. It was established in order "to promote the Junior Red Cross organization work in Glenville High School."

The county has adopted 75 wounded or sick war veterans at the Roanoke, Virginia, hospital. About eight of these will be taken over by Glenville High School. Each home room is expected to take at least one to whom letters will be written and gifts sent.

MARY WALTERS RECOVERING

Mary Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Walters, of Hays City underwent an appendicitis operation in the Weston City Hospital, January 7.

Her condition is now satisfactory.

The eighth grade, of which Mary is a member, are writing letters to her.

31 NEW BOOKS ARE ADDED TO LIBRARY

"Lou Gehrig" and "See Here, Private Hargrove" are two of the most popular books in the library just now. Other good books among the 31 new books are "Berlin Diary," "The Handsome Road," "Canthook Country," "Madame Curie," and "Inside Latin America."

There are 2,590 books listed on the accession book in the library but many of these are lost. There are really 1,857 books in the library, says Miss McGee, librarian.

ADDED TO HONOR ROLL

Peggy June Adams' name was not included on the honor roll in last week's paper. Peggy June's average was 2. This brings the total number on the honor roll to 37, and the sophomores to 7.

HIGH SCHOOL VICTORY CORPS OFFERS OPPORTUNITIES TO STUDENTS

No doubt the most of you have heard many times the expression, "Join the Victory Corps." But what does it mean? seems to be the main question. Let's try to figure out what such an organization means to us, and what its main purpose must be.

First, who can join? It seems as though here only boys of high school age can belong, but this doesn't exclude the girls altogether, because they may have an organization of their own later. The five divisions of the corps are under these headings: Land Service Division, General Membership Division, Air Service Division, Production Service Division, Community Service Division, and Sea Service Division. Only boys enrolled in manual training can enter the Land Division, but all, who meet certain standards in their work, may enlist in the General Membership.

Second, the purpose. Membership aims to prepare the older school boys for service in the armed forces, and life pertaining to the war.

Third, why should the students of this school join, what good could they possibly do? The physical fitness program will not only help the SCHOOL now but will help in one's future LIFE wherever he is. The manual training, math, geometry, algebra, and music are going to be used in the same way.

So, from these points, you should see that it is your opportunity, not your obligation, to enter into such a modern organization. Many have enlisted but more are wanted. Every boy in the high school should be registered in the Victory Corps, because in this way we can be in the Fight-for-Freedom at the home front.

GRUMBLING AND COMPLAINING IS NOT POPULAR NOWADAYS

There is no question but what the winning of the war is the "all-out" interest of everyone at the present time. We should not complain or grumble at the various "rations" that are put in effect from time to time. Remember that our boys who are doing the main work, and risking their very all are the ones we must look after first.

These boys should not and will not suffer for want of food or clothing or supplies that will bring the right result in the end.

Our task is easy as compared with theirs. At times the picture may and does look dark to us. No one likes to see our boys leaving week by week—the very cream of our young manhood. But we have this consolation—in the end they will bring home victory. Let's help them in every way we can. Our duty is plain. We must not fail or shirk.—Margy Jack.

OH, YEAH?

Do you have a pet expression that you use to mean anything and everything? We all have words and phrases that we sadly overwork. For instance, "Oh, yeah" can mean anything from yes to no with variations. "O. K." is similarly overworked.

Noah Webster and other learned men have compiled dictionaries that contain more than 50,000 words. And we go on using the same worn out expressions . . . Of course one is not expected to read Webster before retiring unless unduly studious. But to vary our everyday speech is the only way to learn to use words correctly and with variety and emphasis.

Listen to others, read good books, and try to remember any new words you may meet. Soon you too will use one of them; it will become familiar to you, and another new word has entered your vocabulary.—Miriam McQuain.

VIKINGS LOSE TO TERRORS BY 52'36

Bob Whiting Leads Scoring With 18 Points In Stiff Contest.

The Glenville Red Terrors defeated a strong five from Normantown Friday by a score of 52-36. Although there is a 16-point difference in the score, Normantown put up some of the stiffest resistance that the Red Terrors have met this year.

Rotating Captain Bob Whiting led his team for the second game with 18 points. Dick Yeager was next with 10 and was closely followed by Fultineer with 9. The Terrors got off to one of their best starts this year with a 13-1 lead at the end of the first quarter but began to loaf in the second quarter and Normantown outscored them 15-8 to end the half with the Terrors having only a five-point lead of 21-16. After the boys thought things over at the half they came back stronger than ever and outscored the Vikings 24-3 to end the quarter with a 45-19 count. From then on there was very little scoring for the Glenville team because of the "low-scoring" substitutes which played all of the last quarter.

This was the Red Terrors' fifth straight win against no defeats and their fourth Conference victory. Glenville is among the top teams in the qualification for the Central West Virginia Conference Championship. The lineups:

SPORTS NEWS AND VIEWS

By JACK RADER

The Red Terrors added another victim, Normantown, to their list on January 22 when they defeated the Vikings 52-36 for their second win over their county rivals this season. The shooting of Bob Whiting was outstanding, the Terror forward getting 18 points. As usual, the game drew a large crowd, for the fans knew that a Glenville-Normantown game would be worth seeing.

The war struck two West Virginia Colleges another blow recently when two veteran coaches, C. B. "Cebe" Ross of Morris Harvey and John Moore of Salem resigned, Ross to enter the Navy and Moore to enter defense work. The latter's resignation became effective after the Salem-Rio Grande game on January 23, the game in which John "Brooms" Abramovic set a new scoring record by scoring 57 points.

Glenville High School is the only undefeated basketball team in the Conference. Glenville is being led by their three rotating captains, Bob Whiting, Ted Fultineer, and Rondall Gainer. Also keeping up in the scoring is Dick Yeager. These boys have a range in height from 5' 7" to 6'. The Red Terrors have played only two of the county teams, Sand Fork and Normantown, thus far but will play Troy and Tanner next week.

Coach Hall seemed a bit jittery the past week in basketball practice because he was getting uneasy about the way the boys have been taking their winning streak. He said that one of their worst enemies was "getting too overconfident."

MUSIC CLASSES WRITE VICTORY CORPS SONGS

Members of the Choral Club, boys chorus and girls chorus have each written a verse about the Victory Corps to the tune of the Marine Hymn to be placed in competition in a national contest. It is hoped also that a song will be written with an original tune.

Music has been ordered by Music Director Miss Mary Louise Lewis for commencement. Patriotic selections will be chosen from this music.

BUSES FAIL TO RUN

Two buses, the Troy bus and the Glenville bus, were unable to run part of the time last week.

THE ONCE POPULAR SONG, "JUNE IN JANUARY," TURNS OUT TO BE A FACT

By Marge Jack

We've often heard "people are the craziest things" but I'll cast my vote to change this to—"weather is the craziest thing."

Why, only last week the weather changed so fact one was likely to be walking around in the snow without a coat. Well maybe not quite that fast, but last Saturday, Sunday and Monday it was really "June in January." We were sure spring had come. A warm wind was blowing and the sun was beaming as if proud of itself. Everyone was running around in his shirtsleeves, sweating. We even saw a fat old robbin hopping around.

Then—the next afternoon it began to get colder. The next morning we were awakened with "It's snowing." "Oh, well," we thought, "There might be a few flakes." But when we got up and saw the ground covered with snow and no let-up in the down-pour all day, we were surprised. It looked for sure as if Mother Nature had shaken ALL the down out of her pillows.

But this is the way it goes. "Fair and colder today, warmer and probably snow tomorrow!"

NAMES ADDED TO LIST

Twelve names have been added to the list of former students and teachers in the service to make a total of ninety-seven. Each grade from seventh to twelfth was given two boys to write to. The new names were: Oakley Karickhoff, Eugene Hoover, Glendon Brown, Leonard Pudder, Joe Schrippa, Frank King, Jr., Ray Baxter Musser, Ray Stalnaker, Bob Greenlief, Lloyd George Wolfe, Donald Miles, and Champ Clark Wolfe.

GLENVILLE TO PLAY SAND FORK, CLAY & GASSAWAY TEAMS

Two Contests to Be at Home As Terrors Have a Hard Week On Court.

Glenville will play Sand Fork, Clay and Gassaway this week. They will meet Sand Fork at Sand Fork tomorrow night. This will be the second meeting of the two teams, the Red Terrors having won out in the first meeting 46-32. This will be Glenville's only game away for the next three weeks, then they will meet Spencer February 24 at Spencer.

The Terrors will meet a new team Thursday night when they play Clay. Little is known about the kind of team Clay has but they have had some good teams in the past few years. Glenville will meet Gassaway on the following night, Friday. This will be the first meeting between a "bang up" game every year.

As the paper goes to press (Wednesday) the Red Terrors have taken six consecutive wins and five conference victories against no defeats.

BOGGS, HALL ATTEND VICTORY CORPS MEET

Weston Conference for Administrators and Coaches Held Monday Emphasizes Physical Education.

Principal Earl R. Boggs and Coach Stanley Hall attended a Victory Corps meeting at Weston the past Monday. The meeting, held in the Weston High School gymnasium, was the second of its kind this year for administrators and coaches.

Forest Clark, coach at Mannington High School and A. V. Upton, superintendent of Harrison County Schools, were the directors of the meeting.

Two sessions, morning and afternoon, were held. In the morning, "How to Develop a Physical Fitness Program in the School" was discussed and in the afternoon demonstrations were given by the physical education classes of Weston High School. These demonstrations were under the supervision of Mr. Bailey and Mrs. Howard.

GRADE AND JUNIOR 4-H MEET JANUARY 22

The Grade 4-H Club met January 22, at 5:00 P. M. in the auditorium. Mrs. Adele H. Walsh, County 4-H leader, talked on the projects, and several members enrolled in club work. Mary Alice Wagner, '42, club leader, led the club in songs and discussed the values of several projects.

The Junior High 4-H club met briefly the past Tuesday night at the Court House. Only 4 members were present. The program consisted of business and a talk by Mrs. Walsh.
