STUDENT PUBLICATION OF GLENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

Volume X

Glenville, West Virginia, September 17, 1945

Number 1

JUST LOOKING AROUND

By BOB ARNOLD

Glenville public schools opened Monday, September 3, for the first peacetime opening in four years, and for the first time in twelve years Mr. Earl R. Boggs was not on hand to assume principalship duties. Mr. Boggs is studying at the George Peabody Institute this year on a leave of absence. He is replaced by Mr. Stanley Hall, who is also coach of the high school ball teams.

Some of you who are lovers of mysterious murders and blood-chilling ghost stories may be interested to know that there is a famous ghost within a few miles of Glenville. According to the story this ghost really "lost his head" when it came to haunting folks. You may inquire of Miss Pearl Pickens for full particulars concerning the "Third Run Ghost."

It seems that at least one Glenville canine has a yearnin' for learnin'. "Stink" Fultineer was on hand bright and early the morning school started making his usual way through the halls and classrooms of the school building. "Stink" apparently did not have a successful day as he was ejected from at least three classes. His only comment was, "I didn't have a dog's chance."

Students at Glenville High School jumped right into their studies this year with a vim and vigor. Could it be that they are really serious or have the teachers dropped a gentle hint about an atomic paddle?

Mr. William Hall is anxious to

Prin. Stanley R. Hall

Glenville's new principal, Stanley R. Hall is not "new" to many of the high school's former pupils.

Principal Hall, known to many of the boys as "coach" is a veteran of nineteen years teaching experience. He was added to Glenville's faculty in 1930 as a social science teacher. Four years ago he succeeded C. D. Wilfong as coach and in 1944-1945 he also served as assistant county superintendent.

New Students Enrolled

New high school students enrolled in school this year are as follows: Ninth, Lillie Davis, Troy; Harold McGinnis, Glenville; tenth, Barbara Boyles, of Sand Fork; Edward Ellyson, of

Student Council Installed; Bob Arnold President

The Student Council of Glenville High School was formally installed at a special assembly Thursday.

The council is headed by Bob Arnold, senior representative, succeeding Marito Mae Furr, '45.

Mr. William C. Hall, science instructor, is adviser of the organization, which directs outside school activities, plans programs for home rooms and assemblies, and sponsors plans for school betterment.

Charles Adams, member of the junior class, is vice-president, while Jane Boggs, sophomore representative, acts as secretary. Betty Lou Simmons, freshman, serves as treasurer.

Other members include Mally Ann Mackey, eighth grade and Betty Boyles, seventh grade.

The member-at-large, a senior selected by popular vote of the entire student body, will be named in next week's issue of the Satellite.

Students May Be Exempt From Finals

Principal Stanley R. Hall announced that students will be exempted from first semester finals if they meet certain requirements.

Those students who have a perfect attendance record for the semester may be exempted with a grade of 80; those having been absent no more than five times will be exempted with 85. Students who have an average of 90 will not be required to take final examinations, regardless of attendance.

Mother and Three Sons Enroll Here

Mrs. Hazel Hurst and her three sons, Oral, Harry and Jimmy have enrolled in the Glenville school.

Mrs. Hurst, who was a sophomore here 19 years ago, plans to graduate this spring. Oral is a sophomore and Harry and Jimmy are in the seventh and fifth grades, respectively.

Glenville schools began a new year September 3 with 347 students, a new principal and two new teachers.

Stanley Hall replaces Earl E. Boggs, principal here for the past 12 years, who was given a leave of absence to study at George Peabody College this year. Mrs. Flo Riddle Bartlett, who taught here from 1935-1939 replaces Mrs. Isabell McClung, resigned, as teacher of commercial subjects. Miss Pearl Pickens has returned to Glenville after having served as principal of Tanner schools the past year. She had taught English and journalism here for five years. Mrs. Marvin Cooper, a member of the faculty here for the past two years, was transferred to Tanner as mathematics teacher to replace Mrs. Ella Jones, resigned. Mr. William Hall and Mrs. Emmett Hall will have charge of the mathematics classes here.

Of the total enrollment, 191 are in the grades and 156 in high school. The enrollment by grades is as follows: First—35; second, 32; third, 27; fourth, 36; fifth, 27; sixth, 34; seventh, 29; eighth, 33; ninth, 30; tenth, 23; eleventh, 26; and twelfth, 15.

One new subject, consumer science, has been added to the schedule. It is taught by William Hall.

Immunization Clinic Today

The Health Nurse of Lewis County will conduct an immunization clinic for smallpox and diphtheria in the Health Office at the Court House in Glenville today at 10:00 a. m.

Immunization for typhoid may be held later at the Court House.

Books Given To School

In the school library are 22 new books, mostly of history and English literature, which were presented by Carey Woofter, recently retired College registrar and teacher.

In appreciation for the books, Glenville high school gave Mr. Woofter a pass to all athletic events held during the present high school administration.

Claude R. Linger, a representative of Josten's visited the office last week.

Two G. H. S. Boys From the Big Town Are Glad To Be Back In Glenville

Two sorry looking boys carrying a "Condition Critical" sign trudged to town August 18 after hitch hiking from Baltimore, Maryland.

Says Don Bush: "Arne Wilson and I started from the big city at 5:30 P. M. Thursday hoping to get to Charleston by Friday evening to see the North-South football game. In high spirits we walked approximately three miles to get out on the main highway. In several hops, too numerous to mention, we arrived at Washington to view the Lincoln Memorial, under the grandeur of the half moon and clouds at 9:30. We stood in awe at the beauty of Washington's Monument, Lincoln Memorial, and the Nation's Capitol from the Virginia bank of the Potomac."

"In not so high spirits we waited about an hour on the intersection at Fall's Church, Virginia. About ten miles out of Fall's Church we ate something called lamb stew. Carrying upset stomachs and shoe-laden duffle bags, we trudged about 10 tiny steps and hit the woods for our bed. The droning and diving of mosquitoes kept us both awake nearly all night."

"For our breakfast Friday

Students Can Also Help In Peacetime

School started under new conditions this year as the final phase of the war comes to a halt.

This is the first year, for three years that school has started under peacetime conditions. Except for three months the seniors of '45 went through high school while the war was in progress.

The boys and girls of Glenville did their share, we think, in helping win the war. They sold and bought bonds and stamps, collected paper, tin cans, etc., and helped with Red Cross work. Everyone fully appreciates the work done during the war by the school children of America.

Now that the war is over we students have a bigger job ahead of us than we have ever faced before. Let's study all the harder so that we will have the knowledge necessary to prevent a future war. To prevent others from having to fight for what we had failed to keep—PEACE.

—GLENN BUSH

Best Wishes To Mr. Hall And Mr. Boggs

Stanley R. Hall has replaced Earl R. Boggs as principal of our school for this year. In the 12 years Mr. Boggs was here our school grew and progressed in athletics and in scholastics. During that time the High School became a member of the North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

We wish Mr. Boggs success and happiness this year. And we shall try to show Mr. Hall all courtesy and to help him the best we can. That is one way we can help to have a good school.

"Now" Isn't Too Early

What's that? Study the first weeks of school? You ARE a goose! I'm going to the show.

Well, go to your show, if you like, but remember that it only takes four or five shows during the six weeks period to cause you to flunk as many quizzes. Those quizzes, in case you've forgotten, soon count up—or down.

Certainly, all work and no play isn't good for anyone, but a good school schedule includes ample time for both recreation and homework.

How is your schedule? You can make an A or a D. You can be exempt from your semester examinations—if you try.—Hattie Brannon.

We are glad to have former students visit the school. Especially do we welcome returning service men.

YOUR INQUIRING REPORTER

School will be tops this year if teachers and students mean what they say in reply to question. "What are your resolutions for school this year?"

Miss Hayhurst—Since the sewing machines have arrived I'm going to try to teach all the girls to sew.

Mrs. Hurst—To keep out of the mean crowd in home room.

Mary Sue Greenleaf—To study more and court less.

Francis Frymier—Get here on time.

Jim Gainer—Get my lessons daily.

Charles Adams—Learn to spell more accurately.

Arthur Williams—Treat teachers better.

Mary Shaver—Be better in home room.

Marianne Rhoades—Take times easy and don't let studying get me down.

Seniors of '45 Choose to Follow Various Paths

The seniors of '45 are doing a variety of things as they spend their first year out of high school.

Mary Ann Ellis, Peggy June Adams, Verna Dean Ellis, Nedra Griffith, Betty Hardman, Carolyn Hull, Laura Maude Rader, Marian Reed and Charles Furr have entered Glenville State College, while Don Shreve is attending West Virginia University.

Margaret Ann Berry is planning to go to work. Where or at what, she does not know. Mary Davis is also going to work in Clarksburg. Verona Lee Hess and Marito Furr are employed at Thompson's and McCullough's respectively.

Virginia Owens is planning to stay with her grandfather this winter.

Five of the boys have entered the service. Into the Navy went Charles Berry, Walter Ellyson, and James Harper. Oren Heckert is in the Army and Harvey Hupp joined the Merchant Marine.

FROM CUPID'S DIARY

Another summer has slipped by and some students. Old Dan Cupid has Arnett Wilson worked in Baltimore and came home wearing a new friendship ring given by one of Don Bush's old flames. Brother Jamison says he has "Got no use for wimmin'." Hum "Seems to me I've heard that song before."

Jean Davis visited Charleston and now she too wears a new friendship ring. Joan Barr traveled Weston HI to see a certain young gentleman. Randell L. certainly enjoyed the West football game—coming and going. Christine I. John Jamison's heart aflutter, while the eighth grade girls sing, "I'm Just Wild About Bucky."

Bob Arnold went to a folk dance camp which was attended by 100 girls and 11 boys. When asked if he enjoyed himself Bob's only reply was "Hubba, Hubba!"

WANTED—One First Lady for the Sophomore President. Must be in good form but not necessarily qualified to write "My Day." Everyone interested apply directly to George Schmel. Come singly or in pairs.

Mary Shaver still "Lingers" around. Denny Williams wonders why his hair isn't red. D. F. isn't afraid of storms—in fact he likes a good "Gal."

Roses are red, Violets are blue, Sugar is sweet but who's got sugar?

Jean Arnold and John Adams have agreed to disagree. Many G. H. S. girls mourn the departure of Dane Boggs. The freshman boys are going to take their problems to their new Student Council member. Hilah wishes it could be "Just all year around."

WOLF'S LAMENT:

Woe is me! Woe is me!
I am a student in history,
With books to the left
And lessons to the right
They surely keep a guy busy at night—
—No time to Pro

Willard Smith would rather study Ruby than his text books. Dickie Riddle is in favor of friendly relations between class officers. Dick S. says "Shinnston has its good points, but Coal Hill thinks they keep late hours over there."

Ralph Keller's snapping black eyes attracted many G. H. S. girls into subscribing for the Satellite. You won't be sorry girls. Teddy Hall's sorry Sue Brannon moved away. That's all this week—Bye now.

If you have an idea for a good assembly program tell your Council member about it. We will report to the Student Council which always welcomes suggestions you can help plan interesting assemblies.

The fact that several students tried out cheerleaders is commendable. Our congratulations to the winners. And we are glad the losers were enough interested in the school to try for the position.

Weston Minutemen Defeat Terrors Under Lights, by 13-0 On September 7

The Weston Minutemen topped the Glenville Red Terrors 13-0 under the lights of Weston's stadium, September 7. Although the Terrors outfought and outgained the Minutemen, their six threats within the ten yard stripe were suppressed by four fumbles, an intercepted pass and once on downs.

Coach Stanley "Joe" Hall's Redmen got off to a flying start by scoring in the first five minutes only to have the tally called back because of offside penalty.

Weston's first score came in the second quarter when they penetrated Glenville territory for the first time and drove 70 yards to paydirt, Hammer going over in three downs from the one yard line.

The second half was still undecided between the single wing and Glenville's "T", but in the last five minutes Gabriel Kalafat broke loose on an end run for 47 yards and the last score of the game. Harris plunged the extra point.

Charleston Catholic Draws Spencer From GHS's Schedule

Athletic relations were severed with Spencer High School when she dropped Glenville from her schedule to play Charleston Catholic, reported Coach Stanley Hall last week.

Coach Simmons of Spencer High, wishing to enter the higher brackets of the Charleston area, informed Coach Hall that the former date of the Spencer vs. Glenville tilt would not be suitable.

The Spencer coach suggested a date line in November. The situation was put before the football squad who unanimously asked the coach to drop Spencer entirely and try to fill in the open date with some other team.

Facts reveal this to be the second time Glenville has been dropped from the Spencer schedule.

Terrors Play Blue Devils In Third Game, There Friday

The Red Terrors play this third game of the year at Sutton Friday, September 21.

Nothing is known locally as to the strength of the Blue Devils who played their first game at get the Science Club started for this year. Members of this club will study new scientific developments, conduct various experiments and discuss science problems.

The football squad was entertained at Mr. Earl Boggs' farm on Leading Creek the Saturday before school started. After a hard day's practice the squad journeyed to the river went swimming and then weiners and corn. The spread contained many thrills as boys tried fancy dives from high-flying swing. Dick Fugener, Arthur Williams, D. Boggs and Jim Gainer were performers. After swimming, team went to the farm where refreshments were served. There Mr. Boggs presented a pipe and a supply of tobacco by Dick F. on behalf of the squad. A heavy rain caught the boys coming home and Hardman's car was stuck squarely in the mud until the whole squad literally lifted free. Even with the rain boys had a "swell" time.

Soil Conservation Program Planned For October 7-14

The Rev. G. B. Moore, Gilmer County chairman of the Soil Conservation Commission announces plans for a one-hour daily program each day in the high schools in the county during Soil Conservation Week, October 7-14. Films and speakers will be available for the programs.

A county wide meeting is scheduled for October 8, at the Court House where Senator Matthews will speak. Also the film "It Can Happen Here" will be shown.

Robert Hauman '39 Killed In Plane Crash

Word was received here Saturday, that Captain Robert Theodore Hauman '39, died in a B-29 Superfortress that crashed while on a routine flight from the Gulfport, Miss. base, where he was stationed.

Pilot Hauman attended the local College and entered the Air Corps while a sophomore, November, 1941.

He married the former Miss Lena Ruth Rymer, '40, of Glenville. They have one son Robert Theodore Jr.

He has one brother in school here, Phillip, who is a freshman.

Buses To Be Used For Activities

The State Legislature of January-February legalized the use of school buses this year for carrying participants in athletic contests, music demonstrations, oral debates and other extra-curricular activities.

In a meeting in August the Gilmer County Board of Education gave its approval pending the decision of the local War Production Board, which declared that buses could be used for

New Teachers Are Not Really New

The new teachers really aren't "new" in Glenville High school. Stanley Hall, new principal, has been teaching here since 1930.

Mrs. Flo Riddle Bartlett, commercial teacher taught here from 1935 to 1939. She then taught four years in Harrisville and one year in Spencer High School.

Mrs. Bartlett's husband is serving with the army in the Philippines.

The Bartletts have a two-year-old son, Earl Lawrence, who is here with his mother.

Miss Pearl Pickens first came here in 1939. She was sent to Tanner last year where she served as principal of the Tanner High and Grade School.

Other members of the faculty include: Mr. William Hall, Miss Madge Hayhurst, Miss Jeanne McGee, Mr. Emmett Hull, and Mrs. Lestelle Murphy.

trips within a fifty-mile radius.

The two buses serving Glenville are number seven, driven by Mr. Orville Luzader, which travels the Grassy Run road at 3:50 and the Sand Fork road leaving at 4:05; and number 10, driven by Mr. William Bennett leaving for Tanner at 4:15.

At the present, bus number seven is being used for football trips carrying Coach Hall, Assistant Coach Hull, the managers and the squad.

morning we robbed an orchard of a dozen or so apples five miles out of Winchester. The food in Winchester wasn't good, but oh, those waitresses—!!

"We were hiking to the top of a mountain twelve miles from Winchester because no one would stop on a grade—but a large trailer truck picked us up without stopping and Arne and I took turns sleeping in the fluffy bed behind the front seat. We were planning to go by way of Clarksburg but since the driver (who was married and had two kids while he was home) was going to Elkins, we went that way."

"The North-South football game was just beginning when we arrived at Elkins. We thought about it anyhow! Ten miles out of Elkins there is a mountain—that little grade is five miles long. Arne and I got half way up, and were so worn out that we hit the hay—figuratively as well as literally. We buried ourselves under a haystack and slept better than we ~~could~~ on that hard innerspring at home."

"We kissed the ground of good ole Glenville, West Virginia when we dragged ourselves from the Casto Rubber truck that brought us from the top of that mountain we swore we wouldn't climb. Yessir, I was really glad to see that old red light at the intersection of Lewis and Main—back where boys claim to be men and girls can't get 'em!!!"
