

WE HOPE THAT FANS
AS WELL AS PLAYERS

The Satellite

STUDENT PUBLICATION OF GLENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

WILL FIND THIS AN ENJOYABLE TOURNEY

Volume VII

Glenville, West Virginia, March 8, 1943

Number 20

PLANS MADE FOR A SALVAGE DRIVE AT FEBRUARY MEETING

People In Gilmer County Urged
To Save Tin; Collection Date
To Be Announced.

W. H. Skees, assistant state salvage director, and John T. Flynn, district superintendent of the OCD, called a meeting here February 19 of the block leaders, the salvage chairmen and county director of OCD to make plans for a tin salvage drive in Gilmer County. A definite date for the collection of the prepared tin will be set at a later meeting.

"American women are annually throwing away 17,000,000 tin cans," said Mr. Skees. "Soldiers are salvaging their own tin cans on the battle fields; why shouldn't we?" he continued. Mr. Skees emphasized that this must be an all-out drive for tin, which is important in the war effort. "It is vitally important that we save the tin we have, since we do not produce our own," he added.

To illustrate the importance of tin, Mr. Skees said that: Bearings of airplane motors are 10% tin; the canister of a gas mask is lined with tin; a sulphur drug is carried in a tin

(Continued On Page Four)

Miss Virginia Hall Was Instructor of First Journalism Class in Glenville High School

By Margy Jack

Have any of you ever wondered about your school paper, the Satellite; when it started and under the direction of whom; who worked on it? This reporter thought it might prove interesting so she unearthed the following story.

The first paper published here was a county one, the Gilco. The publication of this paper was rotated and each week it was printed at a different school in the county. In case you haven't noticed before, the first Gilco to be published by Glenville High School is framed and hangs in Room 15. In looking at an old issue of this paper which was published at Cedarville, we came upon a poem written by Myrtle Boggs, the former office girl.

When the schools stopped printing the Gilco in 1935, in-

1,907 REGISTER HERE DURING THE PAST WEEK FOR RATION BOOK II

One thousand, seven hundred sixty-six Ration Book II's were issued February 22 and 23 by the grade and high school teachers here. The elementary school was dismissed on Monday and the high school on Tuesday. Both days, some of the high school students helped with the rationing which was conducted in the Activity Building.

Persons who had failed to register on either of these two days came to the High School building during the week and received their books. Mr. Boggs said that a total of 1,907 Books were issued during the week. Any person who has yet failed to register may do so after March 15 at the local Rationing Board.

"People have a much better knowledge of rationing now than they had when the first Books were issued and are more willing to cooperate with the program," said Principal Earl R. Boggs after these books had been issued. There was scarcely a single complaint by anyone registering here during the week. On the contrary, citizens seemed anxious to comply with the regulations.

Subscribe for The Satellite.

SEVEN HIGH SCHOOLS WILL SEND TEAMS TO TOURNAMENT HERE FRIDAY, SATURDAY

TO THE CITIZENS WHO WERE REGISTERED HERE

The Glenville Public School Faculty wishes to express to those citizens of Glenville and Gilmer County who registered here for Ration Book II, their appreciation for your most excellent cooperation and patience during the two days of rationing. It was because of your help that we were able to service 1766 Ration Books in the two days. Only one day of school was lost, since the elementary teachers acted as registrars on Monday and the high school teachers Tuesday.

DR. RUTENBER AND DR. POWERS WILL CONDUCT SERVICES

Public Invited to Attend Series of Meetings at Baptist Church
March 14-28.

Dr. William Powers and Dr. Culbert Rutenber, respective heads of the Theological and Philosophy of Religion Departments of the Eastern Baptist Seminary, will be the speakers at the Special Services to be held at the Glenville Baptist Church March 14-28 inclusive.

Dr. Powers will preach nine sermons the first week on subjects centered upon Bible Doctrinal themes.

Dr. Rutenber will preach nine Twentieth Century Evangelistic Sermons. "He is a young people's leader, young and unmarried. Young people will be glad to hear him speak," says Rev. Gilbert Moore, pastor of the Glenville Baptist Church here.

Services are open to the public. Evening services will begin at 7:30 p. m. Special music will be furnished by the Senior Choir of the church and talented members of the church.

"A comfortable pew and a welcome for you. We'll be looking for all of you," said Reverend Moore.

★ BUY WAR BONDS, STAMPS.

First Game to Begin at 3:15;
Winner Here Will Enter Regional at Clarksburg, March 19 or 20.

Glenville will be host Friday and Saturday to five Gilmer and two Roane County basketball teams and their followers at the eleventh annual Little Kanawha Valley Sectional Basketball Tournament. This is the second consecutive year the tournament has been held here.

The Glenville-Troy, Tanner-Normantown, and Sand Fork-Spencer games will be played Friday afternoon and night. At two on Saturday the semi-finals will be played and at eight the finals.

Immediately after the final game prizes, donated by local Glenville High School extends a welcome to all visiting teams, their coaches, and all visitors who will be here for the Sectional Tournament Friday and Saturday. We hope your visit will be a pleasant one, and that this will be one of the best tournaments ever held here. To all participating teams we merely say this, "May the best team win."

business people, will be awarded to the winning team and to outstanding individual players.

Season tickets are now on sale. Adult tickets are $1.50 each and student tickets, $1.00. Single session admissions will be fifty and thirty cents.

Newton Anderson of Buckhannon will be the tournament referee. Earl Boggs is tournament director.

The winners here will enter the Regional Tournament to be held at Clarksburg.

BOYS LIKE BLOOD TESTS

Jack Rader, Tony George, and Walter Roe, all seniors, and Morris Collins, freshman, took blood tests recently in preparation for induction into the armed forces sometime within the next few months. Jack and Tony took their blood tests Feb. 18 and Walter and Morris took theirs Feb. 25. Also Richard Whiting, '42, was among those who took the test Feb. 18.

THE SATELLITE

The Satellite is published by the Journalism Class of Glenville High School.

Entered at the postoffice at Glenville as second class mail.
Subscription: 50 cents a year; 30 cents a semester.

WE WELCOME YOU—

Once again it is our privilege, as a high school, to be host to the Little Kanawha Valley Sectional Tournament. Practically all of us have acted as hosts to a tourney before so this will be nothing new. But this is another opportunity for Glenville students to show a spirit of friendliness and courtesy to visitors. Let's help our visitors to make themselves at home while they're here.

The only way to make people want to return is to be friendly, courteous, and to keep everything running smoothly while they are here this time. We can help if we will do whatever we might be called upon to do, and remember to treat the other six schools as though they were guests in our own home.—Margy Jack.

GROW A VICTORY GARDEN AND HELP WIN THE WAR

The people of the United States should start considering whether they are going to have Victory gardens this year or not. One should not start a garden unless he can take care of it throughout the season. The wasted seed and fertilizer could have been used by some one that was willing to do his bit toward the National War Effort.

It takes hard work, sweat and elbow grease to make a garden. Unless you have done those, don't start your garden.

Food is going to be rationed more and more in the future, so if you want to get most of your food without rationing, get your seeds and start and make yourself a good garden this summer.—Jack Porter.

MALTA STANDS—A SYMBOL OF BRITISH COURAGE

The little island of Malta in the Mediterranean, though scarcely the size of the state of Rhode Island, has become one of the most valuable and important spots on earth. For whoever controls this tiny island controls the commerce passing through the narrow straits between Sicily and Tunisia. For the British, who control the island, it protects their lifeline to India, a lifeline they must keep open.

The Nazis, realizing the importance of the island, have tried desperately to bomb the place off the map, but, this little island has not only withstood the shock of better than 1,300 raids, but has sent over 1,000 Axis planes to flaming wrecks by withering anti-aircraft fire and fighter planes. Indeed, because of her heroic struggle, she has earned the respect of the Nazis, who have named her the "unsinkable air-craft carrier."

The British stubbornness and courage, which will surely carry her to victory in the end, has been displayed here.

Thus Malta stands! Merely a pin-point on the map, but here Englishmen have shown how they can die and how they can fight back. Fight back! That is their watchword. Here men and women and children have been subjected to day and night bombardment, but instead of quitting, they have put up such a fight as only heroes can.—Jack Rader.

ONCE AGAIN THE SONG OF THE ROBIN BRINGS CHEER TO A WORRIED WORLD

"It seems to me I've heard that song before; it's from an old familiar score." Yes, once again we're hearing the song of the robin, bird of spring. The little robin redbreast is just one of many signs of the coming spring. All a person needs to do is to look around and there is the bright warm sunshine, the green grass, the trees beginning to bud. There's even the smell of spring in the air; a good, clean smell that takes away the thoughts of cold winter weather and the snowing and blowing that goes with the season.

An old man stopped me just the other day and said, "Well, it looks as if spring is really here. I believe the people have caught the merry tune of the little birds and are finally singing and whistling along with them. You know, that's a good sign. There's no place for worries when people can sing them away."

As I walked on I thought that here was an old man, full of worries and cares, but ready to trade them all for one sweet song. Why can't more of us be like this old gentleman?—Margy Jack.

THRICE ☆ ☆ ☆ TOLD ☆ ☆ ☆ TALES

Read this column from beginning to end
And see if you can't squeeze out a little grin.
* * * *

Coach Hall tries to talk
To his boys before a game
But one of them is staring
At a certain little dame.
* * * *

Rondall Gainer says, "If Glenville's season were over—boy, I could do a lot of courting!"

Tony must think he's still boxing by the way he prances on a basketball floor.

Bob Whiting felt at home
when he was playing at Weston.

When Tony was a freshman he traveled with the team to West Union to play basketball. While warming up before the game and at half time he noticed that something was hurting his foot. After the game was over Tony took off his shoes and found a pair of scissors in the bottom on one shoe.

At the broadcast of the Regional Tournament at Clarksburg in 1942 the radio announcer was describing the fast and furious action in the game between Glenville and Barracksville. He described it thus: "Bob Whiting of Glenville scores a basket. Barracksville takes the ball out. Glance dribbles down the floor; a foul is called on Glenville." It seems that Whiting scored a basket and then got down the floor in time to have a foul called on him.

Don B. paid close attention to the Spencer cheerleaders, especially Patty M. . . . Peggy June is escorted to the Glenville-Fairmont game by a Weston lad . . . Dick Y. and Jean N.
still enjoy the show together.

"BERLIN DIARY" ADDED TO LIBRARY RECENTLY

"Berlin Diary," one of the newer books, that has been written about the pre-war and war period, has as its plot the events in the life of a foreign correspondent in Berlin. The correspondent, William L. Shirer, gives us a vivid picture of life in Germany under Hitlerism and shows the blundering of the French and British which gave the Nazis their chance to spring a European war. It also shows how, by lies and threats, the Nazis induced the German people into a state of believing that the French and British were the aggressors.

A day-to-day account of the events in the life of Mr. Shirer, what he did and his reactions to his work, are contained in this book.

This book has been recently added to the school library.

With the Alumni

Private Frank E. King, Jr., '41, writes from Fort Ord, California, that he enjoys the Satellite. He is in the 125th Infantry in a camp which only 14 weeks ago was a Japanese concentration camp. Frank sends best wishes for the Red Terrors.

Earl R. Stalnaker, '41, is now Pvt. Earl R. Stalnaker, Flight 12, 309 T. S. S., Kessler Field, Mississippi.

Sgt. Earl Wolfe was at home the past week-end on a three-day pass. He scrimmaged with the High School varsity Feb. 19.

Sgt. James Woolter visited his parents on a seven-day leave recently. He is stationed at Langley Field, Virginia.

Jack Luzader, '41, started the Fairmont game February 27, for G. S. T. C., replacing William Whetsell at guard.

Satellite Makes Deadline Even If It Does Have Only One-Half of a Typewriter

If you the students are wondering how it is that we of the journalism class with only a half interest in one typewriter, can put out the school paper week after week, we'll tell you. It is partly because of Miss McGee. Every Monday or Tuesday some member of the journalism class, usually Jack Rader, goes to the library to borrow the typewriter (half of which belongs there). Miss McGee, a patient woman, is always glad to cooperate, even when she is planning to use the machine herself. She just says, "Go ahead; my work can wait."

For her consideration we are indeed grateful, for, you see we must have at least ONE whole typewriter in order to get our stories in readiness to be sent to the printer. Were it not for Miss McGee's goodness, the Satellite might not be able to make the deadline.

Everybody knows that a typewriter, even an entire one, is no good without someone to "run" it. For the past month, Margy Jack has been the sole typist. Were it not for her, the stories might not even get started TOWARD the deadline.

GLENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL HAS WON 6 OF 10 KANAWHA VALLEY TOURNAMENTS

By Earl Ray Ellis

The Glenville Red Terrors have won the Little Kanawha Valley Sectional Basketball Tournament for the past three years. Since the Athletic Association of W. Va. has been reorganized there have been 10 Tournaments. Glenville has won six out of the ten.

In 1941 the tournament was held at Spencer. The Red Terrors defeated Spencer in the finals. Then Glenville went to the Regional Tournament at Clarksburg and was defeated in the first game by Washington Irving. Jack Conrad was named on the All State Team this year.

In 1942 the teams were divided into A and B teams, schools having an enrollment of not more than 200 was in the B class.

The Sectional Tournament was also held at Spencer this year. The Glenville quintet poured on the heat and defeated the Normantown Vikings 101-47. The Glenville boys won the Regional Tournament at Clarksburg by defeating West Milford and Pennsboro. The Gilmer countians then journeyed to the State Tourney at Morgantown. Here the boys won the State B Championship by defeating Riddley, Barrackville, and Athens.

Jack Conrad again made the All-State Team. Jack is the only boy from Glenville who has gotten this honor.

Last year the Sectional Tournament was held at Glenville. The Red Terrors defeated Sand Fork in the finals. Glenville won over Aurora and Piedmont, then were defeated by Barrackville in the finals of the Regional Tournament held at Clarksburg.

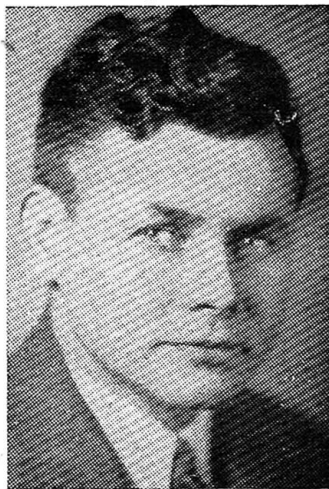

This year (1943) the Red Terrors are playing under a new coach, Stanley "Joe" Hall, who succeeded Coach Wilfong. Up to the present date (February 24) they are undefeated and leading the Central West Virginia Conference. They have won fifteen consecutive games.

SCHOOLS GO BACK TO REGULAR HOURS MAR. 29

Supt. Marvin Cooper has announced that the schools of the county will go back to the regular hours March 29. On that date school will begin at 9 instead of at 10 and close at 3:45 instead of at 4:45.

The past fall when the county went on War Time the school hours were changed to enable students to get to busses without having to leave home before daylight.

Tourney Referee

Newt Anderson, of Buckhannon, will referee the Sectional Tournament here Friday and Saturday.

LOCALS ADD BURNSVILLE, SPENCER AND TROY TO LIST

The Red Terrors added Burnsville, Spencer, and Troy to their victory list in recent games. On Feb. 18 they trounced Burnsville 57-43 at Glenville; on Feb. 24 they beat Spencer 49-24 at Spencer; and on March 2 they swamped Troy at home 60-20.

In the Burnsville game the Terrors led 37-13 at the half, and, using their subs for most of the rest of the game, coasted to victory. Ronnie Gainer and Bob Whiting scored 19 points each for Glenville, while Mick of the visitors got 11.

The locals traveled to Spencer on Feb. 24 and overwhelmed the Roane Countians 49-24. Bob Whiting was top scorer with 16 points, closely followed by Ted Fultineer with 12.

Troy was swamped by the Red Terror five on March 2 at home by 60-20. It was the final home season game of seniors Whiting, Gainer, Fultineer, all of the first team, and subs Fisher, Porter, George, and Ellis. Bob Whiting closed his high school career on home games by tallying 16 points, bringing his season's total to 309 points.

Subscribe for The Satellite.

You Will Find Good Food and Pleasant Service at CONRAD'S RESTAURANT

SPORTS NEWS AND VIEWS

By JACK RADER

The Tournament promises to be one of the most exciting and interesting ever held here, as the participating teams are fairly evenly matched. The Glenville Red Terrors will be the favorite to cop the tourney, because they will be playing at home and also because of their fine season's record. However, both the Normantown Vikings and the Sand Fork Lions have played steady ball all season and will be tough. In fact, none of the teams in the tournament can be regarded lightly.

The Red Terrors suffered their first defeat of the season Feb. 20 when they were beaten by Gassaway on the Gassaway floor. Bob Whiting, having an off night, got only 11 points, while Carte of Gassaway got 19. The loss snapped the Terrors' winning streak of 16 straight games.

In opening games of the tournament on Friday, Glenville will meet Troy, Sand Fork will meet Spencer, and Normantown will go against Tanner. Walton drew a first round bye.

The Glenville Pioneers closed an undefeated season on Feb. 27 by taking Fairmont 57-52 in a rough but exciting game.

DR. HAUGHT SPEAKS

Dr. D. L. Haught, president of Glenville State Teachers College, spoke at the PTA meeting Thursday. H. L. White, head of the English Department, also spoke in behalf of the Red Cross drive which is being conducted this month. Music was under the direction of Miss Mary Young.

IDEAL STUDIO

For Photographs That Please

Clarksburg, W. Va.

KANAWHA UNION BANK

Glenville, W. Va.

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

Josten's, Owatonna, Minn., world's largest producers of class jewelry and announcements. Represented in W. Va. by a graduate of Glenville College. Located only thirty minutes from High School and College campus.

CLAUDE R. LINGER

Phone 2631

Burnsville, W. Va.

COMPLIMENTS

OF

LUDWIK GLASS

COMPANY

MOST OF FORMER GLENVILLE TERRORS ARE NOW "PLAYING" FOR UNCLE SAM

As tournament days again roll around, fans are reminded of other years and other Terrors who have played for Glenville High. A great many of these boys are now engaged in much more serious work than playing in tournaments; many of them are in the armed forces.

Fred Shreve and Linn Gainer are serving with the Marines, while Oral Cunningham is with the Army Air Corps. Ray Baxter Musser, Harry and Jack Woodyard, Beecher Reed, Harold Wilson and Hale Lamb are in the Craddock are in the Army.

Jack Cain, "Buckeye" Jamison and Hal eLamb are in the Navy.

Harlan Fitzpatrick is operating a store at Hays City and Jack Conrad is working with his father here. In Glenville also are Harry Pritt who has been refereeing some games this winter, Wilson Reed, who works in the A & P Store, and Richard Whiting.

Goff Summers, John Baker Ellis, Jack Luzader, David Fitzpatrick, Jr., and Warren Lamb are in college here. Five former Terrors are now employed at Baltimore. They are Hunter Beall, Eugene Barrett, Waitman Brown, Bill Porter, and "Tim" Brown.

Bill Wolfe and Gilbert Rhoades, Jr., are working at Charleston. Bern Wright is working for a gas company at Rosedale while waiting to be called to the army, and Pelk Wolfe is employed by the Pittsburgh & West Virginia Gas Co., and lives in Glenville.

These former Terrors, and others whose whereabouts are not known, will probably be reminded of other days at tournament time arrives.

Plans Made

(Continued From Page One)

container; blood plasma must be packed in tin; and food must be packed in tin cans.

The cans are to be packed flat so they will take the minimum amount of room. All tin cans except those containing paint, lubricating oil and evaporated milk are valuable. The tin from one can may save a boy's life in a gas attack.

Dr. J. C. Shreve was chosen county chairman of the salvage drive to work with Ben Blackburn, chairman of the service side of the OCD.

☆ BUY WAR BONDS, STAMPS.

GASSAWAY GIVES GLENVILLE FIRST DEFEAT OF YEAR

Terrors Lose After Having Won 16 Consecutive Victories During Season.

Glenville High School saw their string of 16 consecutive basketball victories end on Feb. 26 when Gassaway defeated them at Gassaway 39-33.

Bob Whiting who has a right nice average for high scoring man for the Red Terrors, was held to eleven points. Ted Fultineer was next with 9. The game was a nip and tuck affair all the way. Glenville was ahead only once, that being a 4-2 lead early in the game. Gassaway led at the end of the first quarter 11-10. Glenville had one of their worst quarters when they scored only four points in the second quarter and the half ended with Gassaway still leading 19-14. The teams played on even terms the last half, Gassaway getting 20 to Glenville's 19. Gassaway led at the end of the third quarter. There was not more than three to five points difference in the score until Gainer, Glenville forward, fouled out and the remaining two minutes of play were controlled by Gassaway. Carte was the leading scorer for Gassaway with 19 points.

Lineups:

Glenville	G	F	T
Whiting	4	3	11
Gainer	1	3	5
Fultineer	4	1	9
Yeager	2	2	6
Wolfe	1	0	2
	12	9	33
Gassaway	G	F	T
Carte	9	1	19
Frame	1	2	4
Matheny	3	1	7
Ankrum	0	2	2
Hickey	3	1	7
	16	7	39

Referee—McKenzie.

"RIDING ON AIR" WILL BE SHOWN THURSDAY AT SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

"Robinson Crusoe," a three-reel picture with shorts, was shown in assembly February 25 and to the grades February 26, marking the beginning of a series of shows to be given within the next two months. A four cent admission was charged.

Pictures scheduled for March and April include: March 11, "Riding On Air."

March 18, "Target For Tonight," three reels, and "Ride 'Em Cowboy," one reel.

April 1, "Recalled to Life," three reels.

April 15, "Under the Big Top."

All are pay pictures except "Recalled to Life," which is free. One more picture may be added to this list later on.

RED TERROR FIVE TO MEET ALUMNI IN RED CROSS BENEFIT GAME

Tomorrow night the Glenville Red Terrors will meet the Alumni in a game for the benefit of the Red Cross. The Terrors were defeated by the Old Grads in the opening game of the season Dec. 31 by 40-34. In tomorrow's game the Alumni will be strengthened by the presence of Jack Conrad, '41, former star of the Terrors and an all-state basketball man, as well as by other former stars such as Jack Luzader, Harry Pritt, Warren Lamb, and Richard Whiting.

All persons who attended will see a close, hard-fought game as well as contribute to the Red Cross.

PAPER TO BE RATED

The Satellite has been entered in the Twenty-first Annual State Journalism Competition

GLENVILLE BANKING & TRUST COMPANY

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

"GOOD LUCK AND GOODBYE, RED TERRORS" 'LENNIE' SPENCER

BEST WISHES For a Successful TOURNAMENT SMART SHOPPE

APPOINTMENTS SAVE DISAPPOINTMENTS CHARM BEAUTY SALON 3131 Lilla Mae Gladwell

AREHART SUCCEEDS ROHRBOUGH AS COACH

The Rev. C. L. Arehart has been appointed successor to Coach A. F. "Nate" Rohrbough who reported to Quonset Point, Rhode Island, Feb. 23, as a lieutenant (sg) in the U. S. Army.

Rev. Arehart is a graduate of Hampton-Sydney College where he received honorable mention on the All-American football team. He also received his master's degree at the University of Virginia. He is Presbyterian minister here.

GLENVILLE JUNIORS WIN

The Glenville Junior High team won its third game of the year here on March 2, from Troy, by a score of 27-24.

Hupp led the scoring for Glenville with 11 points and Scott led Troy with 9 points. Hardman scored 7 and Arnold 6 for Glenville.

Subscribe for The Satellite.

WELCOME TO THE TOURNAMENT! McCULLOUGH'S Department Store

FOR A VARIETY OF SEEDS— ☆ R. B. STORE

Commencement Invitations and Cards Class Rings and Emblems Engraved Wedding Stationery Newest Booklet Diplomas Caps and Gowns Medals and Trophies Letterheads and Engraved and Printed Envelopes MERRELL'S 111-115 Second Street Clarksburg, West Virginia