

SCHOOL FAIR WILL BE HELD HERE NOVEMBER 17

Panel Discussion Is Held By Local PTA

A panel discussion was held at the regular P. T. A. meeting Thursday, November 2, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. in the Glenville high school auditorium, with Mrs. Muriel Currey as program chairman. The general topic was "Parent-Teacher-Pupil Relationship," with Dr. Harry B. Heflin as chairman. Music was furnished by; Mrs. Orville Luzader, Mrs. Jesse Floyd, Mr. Billy Bennett, Mr. Garrell Divers, Mr. Loren Gibson, and Mrs. H. Y. Clark. Jimmy Potts lead in prayer.

Three topics were discussed. The first was "The Kind of Parent With Whom I Like To Work," with the following participating: Mrs. Robert Butcher and Mr. William Erwin. The second topic was, "The Kind Of Teacher I Like," with Mr. Haymon Boggs, Mr. Frank Poole, and Mrs. Robert Crawford participating. The high school students who took part in the last discussion, "The Kind of Teacher I Like," were: Homer Halloway, Guy Ellyson, Jean Conner, Phyllis Armentrout. The grade students taking part were: Bill Smith and Kitty Miller.

The special numbers, School Days and My Wild Irish Rose, were presented by Mrs. Jesse Floyd and Mr. Billy Bennett. Banners were awarded to the first and eighth grades.

Fifteen Instructors Attend WVEA Meet

Two days vacation was given to the students as teachers of Glenville elementary and high schools attended the 86th meeting of the West Virginia Education Association at Charleston, October 26-27.

Thousands of teachers, along with principals and county superintendents from all over the state, attended the two-day convention at Charleston's municipal auditorium. General theme was "Helping Boys and Girls Find Our Heritage."

Special features of this meeting were addresses by Governor Patterson, John K. Norton of Columbia University; Quentin Reynolds, author and war correspondent; and Dr. Bernard C. Claussen, author and pastor of the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church of Cleveland, Ohio.

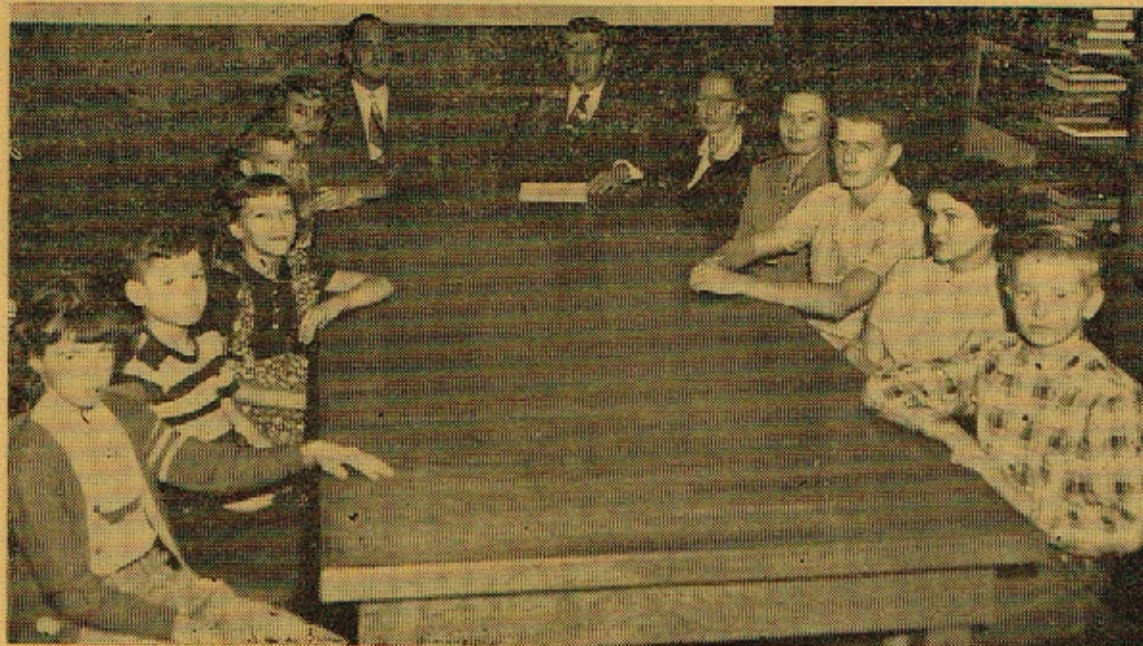

First Gilmer County Court House Is Still Standing Below Glenville

By Marlene Brown
Still standing, though marked by old Father Time, is the red brick building which was the first Gilmer County court house. Located at DeKalb, it was so named by William Stalnaker, owner of the building. He called this place DeKalb in honor of Baron de Kalb who served in the Revolution. Stalnaker was greatly impressed by tales of DeKalb's bravery.

This home served as the buying and selling headquarters for the people of this community. All supplies were brought there and distributed to the farmers. It also served as a hotel for the travelers or moving settlers.

"The Uncertain Age" Chosen As Class Play

"The Uncertain Age" written by Hilda Manning, has been chosen as the junior class play. The cast, which includes eight girls and five boys, is as follows: Glory Scudder, Betty Turner; Birdie, Jean Conner; Snooks Larkin, Alice Griffith; Thelma Grey, Josephine Wenzel; Mrs. Scudder, Doris Jean Ashcraft; Ricky Barnes, Kenneth Starrett; Charles Giddings, Tommy Hyer; Virginia Scudder, Susan P. Arnold; Tony Giddings, Donald Huff; Benn Scudder, Roland Coberly; Mrs. Mary Larkin, Gerry McGinnis; Joan Willis, "Pat" Greenleaf; and Leroy Willis, Jack Cawthon.

The play is a three act comedy and is to be produced the last of the month. The play is under the direction of Miss Goldine Woodford, sponsor of the junior class.

The students of Glenville high school received their school pictures Monday, October 30.

Attend the Glenville High School Carnival November 17.

Glenville Students Attend Convention

The Glenville high school Student Council was represented at the State Student Council meeting at Jackson's Mill Monday, October 30 by sponsor of the student council, Mrs. Lestelle Murphy, and the representatives, Jack Cawthon, Jim Furr, Alice Anne Griffith, Haymond Boggs and David Hall.

The theme of the Eighteenth Annual Convention of the West Virginia Association of Student Councils was "Selling." An address was given by H. C. Goff, President of the Frontier Press of Buffalo, New York concerning the "Secrets of Selling." Following the address, the different representatives from the different high schools were sent to one of four workshop discussion groups which were led by four high school students. The subjects of the discussion groups were: "Selling the Student Council To Our School," "Selling the Student Council To Other Schools," "Selling Our Student Council To The Community" and "Selling Our Student Council To The Administration and Faculty."

The workshops were continued after lunch and were dismissed at 2, 15 when group pictures were made of everyone attending the meeting. After the pictures were taken, a general assembly was held in which four convention reports were given by the representatives which attended the national and district meetings.

At the banquet that evening, Meredith Parry, Assistant Superintendent of Kanawha County Schools, gave a talk concerning his life. Following the banquet, a square dance was held in the assembly hall.

Tuesday, October 31, the officers of the West Virginia Association of Student Councils were elected. Last year's officers were: President, Clyde Gillespie of Stonewall Jackson high school; Vice President, Pete White of Clendenin high school; and Secretary-Treasurer, Sue Starling, of Parkersburg High School.

Music And Dancing Added To Curriculum

A music class from 3 o'clock to 3:45 was begun Tuesday, October 17 in Glenville high school. The class is directed by Mrs. Murphy and meets on Tuesdays and alternating Thursdays. Miss Marianne Rhoades is leading the chorus group, but Miss Eugenia Rohr, music major in college, will take her place. The chorus will sing at the Presbyterian church November 14.

A tap dancing class will meet Wednesdays and Fridays in the college gymnasium at 8 o'clock under the supervision of Miss Ilene White.

These two new activities will be continued if the students are interested in participating in them.

Seven Movies To Be Shown At G. H. S.

The following movies will be shown at Glenville high school the first semester:

- Blondie Has Servant Trouble, Oct. 3
- Enchanted Forest Oct. 25 (Technicolor)
- Blonde Savage Nov. 9
- Borderland (Western) Nov. 30
- Captain Kidd Dec. 12 (Technicolor)
- South To Karango Jan. 17
- Last of the Mohicans Feb. 1 (Technicolor)

An admission of ten cents will be charged for high school and five cents for grade.

SENIORS LEAD

The seniors led with 95.2 percent attendance during the month of September. The other classes were as follows: juniors - 97.6, sophomores - 96.3, freshmen - 86.3, eighth grade - 98.0, seventh grade - 95.4

Mrs. Linn Hickman, Glenville high school English instructor, accompanied the high school cheerleaders to the Unidis-Glenville football game at Bridgeport.

Coach Carlos Ratliff of Glenville State College was recently hospitalized because of a heart ailment. His condition is reported improved.

Crowning Of Queen To Hold Spotlight

Student Council To Sponsor Activities Of Evening

One of the most colorful events of the school year will take place Friday night, November 17, when the students and teachers of Glenville high school sponsor the first school carnival held here since 1948.

Nominees of each class from the seventh, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades will be voted on, each vote costing one cent each, for the "Queen of the Carnival." Her crown bearer will be elected from the first six grades in the same manner. The voting will begin Friday, November 10, and continue until 9 o'clock Friday night preceding the coronation.

Mrs. Madge Butcher and Mrs. Denver McDougal, with the help of the home economics department, will have charge of the selling of food. The student council will conduct the biggest attractions of the evening, the amateur contest and a turkey raffle. The junior class will sponsor a baseball throw and sell chances on a sweater.

The supervisors of the featured attractions are: amateur contest, Mr. Wolfe and Mrs. Murphy; popcorn stand, Mrs. Hickman; mystery booth, Mr. Garrett; bingo, Miss Wolfe, Mrs. Currey, and Mr. Erwin; baseball throw, Miss Woodford; guessing jars, Mrs. Hickman; cake walk, Mr. Wolfe; chances on sweater, Miss Woodford; movie, Mr. Garrett; penny pitching, Mr. Smith; and fish pond, Miss Hall.

School Float Made By Student Council

Ideas for the Glenville high school float in the Glenville college homecoming parade were submitted and voted on in the student council meeting, Tuesday, October 10. In the idea selected, Bud Huff portrayed an Indian chief, and Alice Anne Griffith an Indian princess, while Dick Moss, Jack Davis, Bill Lorentz and Kenneth Waggy were warriors. These representatives rode on the float which was decorated with red and white crepe paper. For the float, which was number 51 of the 71 different floats entered in the parade, the student council borrowed Carmelo Nocida's truck.

In the student council meeting, Monday, October 16, Mr. John Morford and Miss Ilene White gave different suggestions for earning money. No definite plans were made until the suggestions can be discussed thoroughly.

DRIVERS EDUCATION CLASS RECEIVES NEW CAR

The drivers education class received their car, a 1950 Ford, dual control, Tudor Sedan the past week. The car is sponsored by Shaver Motor Sales and will be returned at the end of the year. There are ten students taking the course with Mr. Stennett as teacher. "Purpose of the course is not only to teach driving but safety when driving," says Mr. Stennett.

WHERE ARE ASSEMBLIES?

Missing from Glenville high school this year are the assemblies which we had regularly last year. Entertainment makes school more enjoyable and when working together on assemblies students will learn to cooperate.

Leavings From The Editors Desk

Did fate catch up with the halloeweeners or did they escape it by the skin of their teeth like Tommy Hyer, John Shock, Mimi Nocida, and Bill Stout did last year?

Bison Reed's old Chevie is missed among the parking spaces in front of the high school. No more will the roar of his car be heard as it attempts to climb the hill.

A new invention that has been made known in Glenville high school is an envelope with a draw string opener. These handy gadgets found on Susan Arnold's letters from John Ralston make it possible for her to get the envelopes opened faster.

The dual control training car for driver's education class has arrived. Josephine Wenzel is anxious to learn to drive so that she can journey to Sand Fork to see Harold Collins.

Students are seen carrying their books home more often this six weeks. Could it be that some of them are trying to improve those awful grades of last six weeks?

Monday, October 16, a parade of college students led by the college band marched through the streets bringing the students in high school to the windows to watch them.

If anyone wonders the reason for the blisters on Gerry McGinnis's hands, just go to a Glenville high school football game and gaze at Gerry pounding to her heart's content on an old drum, one of the relics of the high school band.

Interested in singing and dancing? Here is your opportunity. On Tuesdays and alternating Thursday at 8 o'clock a singing class, led by Miss Eugenia Rohr, is held in the auditorium.

In the journalism office hangs an old but not forgotten sign, "THIS

The First Glenville School Building

The present Glenville school building, old and inadequate, and long an eyesore in the eyes of the Glenville citizenry, has been standing for thirty-seven years.

The first school in Glenville was held in the old Methodist Episcopal Church on College street about 1833. The next school on record was in the Court House about 1850. After 1875, school was held in an old wooden structure known as the Lively Hall, in which the present Glenville College was started.

From 1873 to 1928, the main part of the high school work was done in

Basketball Practice To Begin Next Week

Reed Only Holdover From '49-'50 Squad

7 Lettermen Will Vie For Starting Assignments

With but one member of the 1950 successful cage combine returning, the Glenville Red Terrors will begin drills next week in preparation for a twenty-game schedule which, from all indications, appears to be even tougher than last year's card.

Gone from the famous quintet which never lost a regular season home game in two years are Bob Turner, Dick Barrett, Francis Frymier, and Leon Starkey. A mammoth task will be to plug the holes left by these four, although there will be seven lettermen (Bob Reed, Tommy Hyer, Dominick Nocida, Bud Huff, Denzil Huff, Bill Woodyard, and Ferman Rhodes) returning. An incomplete schedule of 18 games is on tap and negotiations with Spencer, if completed, will fill the schedule of 20 games.

The incomplete schedule to date is as follows:

Clay Defeats Terrors 19-14 In Final Canto

The Clay Panthers capitalizing on the Red Terrors' second half collapse, scored an uncanned 19-14 victory over the demoralized local eleven, Friday, Oct. 13, on the Terrors' home field.

Dennis Legg, Clay halfback, scored two touchdowns and one extra point in the last six minutes of play to lead the Panthers' attack.

Glenville drew first blood in the first quarter when Bob Reed gathered in a Hyer pass in the end zone, after which he ran the extra point to put the Terrors out in front 7-0.

Midway in the second canto, the Panthers scored on a pass play covering 35 yards. Later in that quarter, Nocida passed to Reed for the Terrors' second and last touchdown. Nocida scored the extra point on an off-tackle play to put the Terrors ahead 14-6 at halftime.

Following a scoreless third period, Legg opened his one-man show by scoring on a 40 yard reverse around left end which caught the Terror defense asleep. He then intercepted a Reed pass and ran 60 yards for the final touchdown of the game.

SPORT SHORTS

By Joe Floyd

For the first time in the history of Glenville high school, it looks as though we will have an athletic field. Grading by the Byron Construction Company of Clarksburg has been completed after work was delayed by heavy rains. They have paved a road to the field, and plans for sowing grass on it are being arranged. Coach Wolfe says there is a possibility of playing baseball on it this spring.

Turning to next year's football team, the Red Terrors will lose five of their eleven men, but six returning lettermen and some promising freshmen are expected to be fairly strong. Those lost by graduation are Bob Reed, Cecil Reaser, Denzil Huff, Bill Dodd, and Joe Floyd.

Joe Floyd has quit football for the year because of a leg injury received in the first week of practice.

On the basketball scene, Coach Wolfe will have a rebuilding job on his hands with only one man of last year's first team returning, but with eight lettermen returning, the team will be fair. It will lack height, which will have to be made up in spirit and speed.

The Red Terrors will open their 1950-51 basketball season December 8 at Sand Fork where they take on the Lions. On Tuesday, December 12, the locals will encounter the Clay Panthers, in their first home game of the season. Following the Clay tussle, the Tanner Bulldogs will engage the Terrors on the Glenville floor in what shapes up to be one of the highlights of the season. So far the Terrors have 12 games scheduled for the coming season, two with each of the following schools: Clay, Gassaway, Sand Fork, Tanner, Normantown, and Troy.

Red Terrors Hold 8 to 6 Edge Over Burnsville In Armistice Day Games

Come Armistice day, one will find over this land some old football rivalries meeting on the gridiron, but one of the most heated feud of them all will be found "up the river" at Burnsville, where the Burnsville Bruins will encounter the Glenville Red Terrors. Over a period of 14 years, the Red Terrors hold an edge of eight wins to Burnsville's six. But still doesn't settle this year's argument because in a game prior to this date these two teams played to a 20-20 tie. So, this battle on the banks of the Kanawha shapes up as a thriller-diller. Here is the overall record of the two teams dating back as far as 1935.

Glenville Clipped By Gassaway Elks 13-7

The Red Terrors went down to defeat Friday night, October 20, at Gassaway, where the Elks took a hard fought 13-7 game from the locals. Following a scoreless first quarter, Heater, Gassaway halfback, broke loose on a 10 yard scamper for the first score of the game. Mullins placekicked the extra point. The Elks threatened again late in the second period, but time ran out with the ball on the Terror one foot line. Gassaway led 7-0 at halftime.

The Terrors came back strong following the intermission, scoring in the early minutes of the second half on an off tackle play with Shock tallying on an eight yard sprint. Ellison, who carried the brunt of the locals' offensive attack, scored the extra point on an end run which tied the game at a 7-7 count.

Midway in the last canto, the Elks tallied the winning marker on a two-yard plunge by Heater.

TERRORS RATE TOP 10 SPORTSMANSHIP POLL

In a recent sportsmanship rating conducted by the West Virginia High School Athletic Association the Glenville high school Red Terrors ranked among the top ten in schools supporting both football and basketball in the class "B" division. The ratings were based on four major points: crowd rating, coaches rating, team rating, and other personnel rating. The Red Terrors rated fourth in crowd rating with 977, sixth in coaches rating with 989, third in team rating with 980, and fourth in other personnel rating with 989, each out of a possible 1,000 points. The ratings were made by the officials who called the games.

Terrors Are 21-6 Victors Over Unidis

The Red Terrors slid to a mud-soaked 21-6 victory over Unidis high school Friday night, November 2, at Bridgeport. The contest, which featured touchdowns by Bud Huff, Bob Reed, and John Shock was played in the midst of a steady downpour, which handicapped both teams greatly.

The Wolfemen drew first blood when John Shock went off tackle from the 10 yard stripe to climax a 60 yard drive early in the first quarter, and followed with a plunge through the left side of the line for the extra point.

Later in the same period, Bob Reed scooped up a Unidis fumble and raced 65 yards to rack up the second tally of the evening for the locals. Reed scored the extra point on a pass from Hyer.

Early in the second canto, Unidis scored on a double reverse pass play which covered 15 yards. The point after touchdown kick fizzled and the score remained 14-6 at half-time.

In the third quarter, both teams played on fairly even terms, although the Terrors marched to the West Milford 10 where their bid for a score in that period hit a stone wall. Bud Huff scored the final six pointer for the Terrors when he took a pass from Hyer on the five and raced the remaining distance. Ellison scored the extra point on an end run.

Glenville Grade School Students Begin Projects; Make Halloween Decorations

First Grade
The first grade has not started any definite project for this year, but the students have made false faces out of paper sacks and have decorated their room for Halloween, says Miss Wolfe, first grade teacher. She has 37 enrolled in her class.

Second Grade
The second grade, under supervision of Mrs. McDougal, has an enrollment of 34. They have been working on a unit about airplanes. Many of them brought model planes and pictures that were used for display. The purpose of studying about airplanes was to create more interest in planes and to answer questions that many of the children asked about them.

Third Grade
Although some Halloween decorations were made, the third grade, instructed by Miss Arnold, is spending most of its time studying regular lessons. They are planning to build a miniature theater for a puppet show in the near future. There are 40 students enrolled in the third grade.

Fourth Grade
The fourth grade, with an enrollment of 36, made Halloween decorations, but most of their time is spent doing routine work, says Miss Kidd, the fourth grade teacher. They have been studying about early Spanish explorers in history.

Fifth Grade
The fifth grade, under the direction of Miss Hall, made Halloween decorations, learned Halloween songs, and had a Halloween party. They also had a Columbus Day program. The fifth grade has an enrollment of 34.

Sixth Grade
Mr. Erwin, the sixth grade teacher, says his class is beginning a map-making project in geography. The 35 students enrolled in the class divided into committees to study the different continents of the world. They are studying poetry in English and are making a book of their favorite poems.

FIRST FIRE DRILL SHOWS TOO MUCH TIME IS TAKEN

Prin. Leroy B. Stennett stated that too much time was taken in vacating the building in the first fire drill held on Oct. 12.

State fire marshal requires the school to have at least two fire drills a month.

Mr. Stennett says, "This is so the students will become used to leaving the building in an orderly manner in case of a real fire. There will be no fixed time for the fire drill. Only the one who transmits the alarm will know. A continual clanging of the bell is the fire alarm. All doors and exits shall be kept unlocked and unfastened during school hours. Speed in emptying a building, while desirable, is secondary to the maintenance of proper order and discipline."

Red Terrors Tied By Burnsville Eleven

The Red Terrors, playing without the services of three first string linemen — Bill and Haymond Boggs and Cecil Reaser — had to settle for a 20-20 tie with the Burnsville Bruins in their first home game of the season, Friday, Sept. 29.

Bob Reed opened the scoring in the first quarter when he ran 40 yards after taking a pass from Hyer. The Terrors scored the extra point on the same combination. Burnsville came back to score three times in the first half, all on passes. John Shock scored the "point" second number of the day when he took a pass from Hyer on the Burnsville 30 and reced the remaining distance for the TD. A pass -Hyer to Reed was good for the extra point. Burnsville led at halftime 20-14.

The Red Terrors came back to tie it up in the third period when Shock scampered off tackle for 60 yards and the final score of the game. Shock's end run for the point after touchdown failed.

the building could be completed at Glenville. As the next term of court drew near, there was much argument over moving to Glenville. James Camp, county clerk, refused to move the records, to the new location. Without the records they could not hold court at Glenville. Agents, stationed at DeKalb, learned that those favoring Glenville were in majority. The people in Glenville were notified and they arrived at DeKalb before adjournment. They, being in majority, moved that the meeting be adjourned to Glenville.

After this the town of DeKalb declined in population and the old red brick house is said to have acquired a ghost, the spirit of Daniel McCune who was tried, convicted, and sentenced here for the murder of Jonathan Nicholas, according to local tradition.

This old red brick mansion now stands as one of the greatest and best known landmarks of Gilmer county.

(This material was taken from a history of Gilmer county, a West Virginia Writers' Project Administration. An Educational Handbook for Gilmer county disagrees with this in saying that the records were removed to Glenville in stealth during the night.)

November Is Remembered As A Month Of Many Historical Happenings

November is a month that brings memories of many historical events that have taken place during our lives and in the generations before us.

Four presidents were born in this month. Warren Harding was born on November 2, 1865; Franklin Pierce, November 23, 1804; Zachary Taylor, November 24, 1784; and James Garfield, November 19, 1831. Three states entered the union in November, Montana entered on the 8, 1889, Oklahoma on the 16, 1907; and North Carolina on the 21, 1789. The legal holidays of November are: General Election Day, Armistice Day, and Thanksgiving Day on the 7, 11, and 23 respectively.

The gasoline engine was invented on the 12, 1879; Byrd made his south pole flight on the 29, 1929; the first steamboat crossed the Atlantic on the 30, 1819; the Suez Canal was opened on the 17, 1869; the first U. S. government postoffice was opened on the 28, 1783; and the Articles of Confederation were adopted on the 15, 1777.

The birthstone for the month of November is Topaz.

Terrors Whip Walton In Homecoming Game

The Red Terrors took the Walton Tigers into camp by a score of 41-0 Friday Oct. 6, at Rohrbough field. The Terrors scored on the second play from scrimmage and then went on to score 2 touchdowns in every quarter but the second in which they were held scoreless. Bob Reed, towering end, scored 3 touchdowns and 2 extra points to lead the offensive minded Terrors. Dominic Nocida, John Shock, and Bernard Ellison each scored one touchdown while Bill Dodd and Bud Huff tallied extra points for the winners. Reed scored all three of his touchdowns on passes, 2 from Hyer and 1 from Nocida. Bill Dodd, hard running fullback, bore the brunt of the attack
