Squirrels Get A Sample Of What Axis Can Expect From Yankee Guns

By Jack Rader

Crack! Crack! We hear the far-off sound of guns. These are not the guns of war, as one might imagine, with our country fighting, but merely the guns of the squirrel hunters indicating another bad season for Mr. Squirrel and his family.

For days and even weeks now hunters have been oiling their guns, buying cartridges, if there are any to buy, and doing all the other things connected with getting ready for this event in a hunter's life.

For the next six or eight weeks the life of squirrels will be in deadly danger and many a hunter will be coming home

The assembly was opened with the entire student body repeating the pledge to the flag and singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. and Mrs. Moore sang a duet, "Ivory Palaces."

COMMITTEE CHOOSING JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Junior Class is at work selecting a play, to be presented some time during the first semester. A committee, made up of Marjorie Wiant, Betty Jean Fisher, Billy Luzader and Jack Hardman, have ordered several plays to read.

Miss Helen McGee will direct the play. Bobby Bennett is president of the class.

MR. DALE HAVEN SPEAKS TO TEACHERS

Music Instructors Throughout the County Are Shown How Their Pupils Should Be Taught.

Music teachers throughout the county turned students—and enjoyed the experience—the past Monday and Tuesday when Mr. Dale Haven, a representative of Ginn and Co., showed them how music should be taught to their pupils.

Mr. Haven gave three demonstration lessons at the High School building. Monday afternoon he met with the primary teachers; Monday evening with the rural school teachers and Tuesday with the teachers of the intermediate grades. Among other things he demonstrated the teaching of rote songs, curing monotones, principles of note reading and approach to harmony.

Mr. Haven has taught in the grades, in high schools, in college and has done some concert work. He is an advocate of amateur music; music primarily for fun rather than for a career. "There is a great field for re-evaluation of music," he said, and is convinced "that the piano is coming back into the home."

These demonstrations were given as an aid in starting a new music program in Gilmer County, under the supervision of Miss Mary Louise Lewis, county music director.

Willard Yeager, '42, is home on a furlough. He is a brother of Della Yeager, senior.

The Blackout For County Will Be Held Wednesday Between 8 and 12 O'clock.

"You folks did a swell job mobilizing; everybody was on the job. You have done exceptionally well for the first blackout." So said John T. Flynn, supervisor of this district, in commenting on the partial blackout held in Glenville the past Wednesday.

The town was almost completely blacked out within three minutes after the siren had sounded. All lights in Brooklyn were out within two minutes. The four or five persons in the town who failed to turn out their lights had not heard the alarm, and turned them off as soon as they were asked to do so. "This," said Mr. Flynn, "shows you have the good will of all in the community."

Because of a misheard siren about signals, the alarm was sounded earlier than had been planned and thus it was really a surprise. The alarm sounded at 7:57 and the all-clear at 8:15.

Total Blackout Wednesday

A total blackout, scheduled for Wednesday night, October 21 between 8 and 12 o'clock, will extend over all of Gilmer County.

Major James P. Easley, Fifth Service Command Liaison Officer Assigned to West Virginia, and John T. Flynn, of the Third District in O. C. D., will be present.

BRING IN YOUR SCRAP RUBBER AND METAL TO HELP 'SLAP A JAP'

Any scrap today? Any iron, rubber or old metal of any kind which is of no use to you? If anyone, student or townsman, has any such useless material, he can use it to help "slap a Jap" if he will collect it and bring it to the salvage center. The Defense Building, just under the hill, has been designated as salvage center. All scrap collected in this community should be placed there. It will later be taken away.

Almost all kinds of scrap can be used, but tin cans are of no use. They are not wanted.

BACK THE "MAN BEHIND THE HORN" AND YOU'LL BACK A GOOD BAND

"I am proud of the band, not because of the fine playing because we shall play better, later, but because of their cooperation," said Mrs. A. F. Rohrbough, band instructor, at P. T. A., recently.

Roland Butcher, in assembly, also expressed his appreciation to the band for their fine playing, and reminded us of the fact that G. H. S. students should back their band.

This is very true. If the student body does not show its appreciation of the band, the members will feel that it is a waste of time to practice and then receive no thanks.

Mrs. Rohrbough should also be complimented for her interest in the band and thanked for the time she has spent with it.

The band helps create school spirit, so let's back the "man behind the horn" and the band will continue to render its services to G. H. S.—Mary Lila Luzader.

MODERN SCHOOL METHODS MAKE SCHOOL MORE ENJOYABLE

Yes, you probably do have a great many things around school to complain about, but—have you ever stopped to think of the advantages our schools today have, with their modern equipment and broad scope of learning? Let's enumerate a few of these advantages.

Our buildings are pleasant places in which to work. Steam heat, electric lights, clear glass windows, lockers, and comfortable seats make them so. We'd be pretty uncomfortable with pine-knot lighting and hard benches.

The school library is a great help. We spend many hours there using reference books, the dictionaries or reading for pleasure. To be sure, our library is far from being perfect, but even the biggest grouch will have to admit that it is very much better than no library at all.

Perhaps the building is more attractive than you had realized. Lawns are well-kept, flowers bloom during the summer months, and the hedges are well-trimmed. The building is kept clean without any worry on the part of the students. Perhaps everyone hasn't noticed them, but there are some very good pictures on the walls of the classrooms and in the halls. Most of the home room groups try to keep their rooms as attractive as possible.

Best of all our modern advantages, perhaps, is the variety of work and activities offered in school and the assurance that we will always have trained teachers.

All these things make school today interesting. The job which the youth of today has to do is to take advantage of these opportunities. In doing so, let us not complain too much of the opportunities which are lacking.—Karl West.

"I DON'T HAVE TIME"?

"I don't have time" is the excuse many high school students give for not attending church.

One of the main reasons the world is in war today is the lack of reverence for God and lack of interest in His house.

Do you, as high school students, realize that people in Germany, Italy, and France do not have this privilege? They can worship no one but Hitler and Mussolini.

We here in America, who have the privilege of worshipping God as we please and where we please, fail to take advantage of this opportunity.

Let us, as high school students, take the lead in supporting the churches of our community, and we will be rewarded "an hundred fold."—Mary Lila Luzader.

THRICE TOLD TALES

Gossip, gossip, everywhere and not a drop to write—but you know our motto, "Try, try again."

Another Home-coming rolled around and many G. H. S. students and alumni attended the game and dance. The money from the game went to the U. S. O. . . . Anne and Betty think the two boys from Beckley played a wonderful game . . . "Puzy" Luzader, former G. H. S. star, is now a college hero with Betty Heater, former student, being the chief worshipper. Betty and "Puzy" were later seen at the dance . . . Nell and "Water Boy" Stalnaker made a cute couple at the dance.

"THIS AMAZING AMERICA" SHOWN PAST THURSDAY

"This Amazing America," a four-reel moving picture showing interesting and beautiful scenes in both North and South America, was shown in assembly the past Thursday.

This Thursday students will go to home room instead of to assembly. Report cards will be given out at that time. Grade school students will receive their cards tomorrow.

JOHNNY STUDENT SAYS:

Class parties will soon be had by most grades. This year there will be a new feeling at the recreational times. Pop and hot dogs will be sacrificed for defense stamps, for the U. S. O., and for civilian defense. Yet we shall have practically as good a time as usual.

How many other countries would allow wiener roasts? The United States is lucky that it has not felt the pinches of war. Or is it luck? Maybe these things are what have added up to the "too little and too late."

But at these parties we will have fun and we'll be sacrificing—showing our parents and the whole community what it means to sacrifice. The youth are showing the older ones the way to win this war.

MUSICAL NOTES

The theme songs of the big "name" bands are familiar to most high school and college students who listen to the radio at all.

At the present time the captivating rhythm of Woody Herman and his band, which plays the blues, is a top-notch attraction. A few years ago Woody and his boys were a small-time band playing the vaudeville circuits. He is now one of the high-ranking swing band leaders of the day. Billie Rogers is now featured on the trumpet. She is the only girl trumpeter featured with an all-male band today.

Woody's theme, "Blue Flame," is an exciting bit of rhythm.

W. LIBERTY DOWNS G. S. T. C. IN ANNUAL HOME-COMING 20-13

Jack Luzader, Former Red Terror Athlete, Makes Most Spectacular Run of the Game.

The West Liberty Hilltoppers, last year's West Virginia Conference champs, defeated the Glenville Pioneers 20-13 in the 12th annual home-coming game at Rohrbough Field, October 10. The game was a see-saw affair throughout with the big difference between the teams apparently being the fine passing and running of Leo Zilla, who sparked the Hilltoppers to their victory. Although only scoring once, he passed for one score and set up still another with short tosses. The Pioneers also showed a strong running and passing game but their failure to stop Zilla led to their downfall.

Whetsell and Karantonis were outstanding in the backfield for Glenville, but it was a former Red Terror flash, Jack Luzader, who provided the big thrill for the local fans with a brilliant 40 yard touchdown run on the first play after he entered the game as a substitute. Two other former Terror stars, David Fitzpatrick and Harold Wilson, saw service in the contest, the former starting at left end and the latter coming in as a sub end later in the game. In the forward wall for the Pioneers the plays of Kafer and Lilly stood out.

The game was played for the benefit of the U. S. O., with all of the proceeds going to that organization. Each person who attended the game was expected to donate some amount of money to this cause.

STUDENTS DISMISSED TO SEE FOOTBALL GAME

The Glenville-Webster Springs game, formerly scheduled for Saturday, October 17, was moved back one day to Friday. Regular classes met on that afternoon until 2:30 when those who attended the game were excused. A study hall period was provided for those not attending the game.

The Glenville High School Band, under the direction of Mrs. Rohrbough, played at the contest.

SPORTS NEWS AND VIEWS

By JACK RADER

Now that another baseball season and World Series have gone into the record books, the sports fans' interest has naturally turned to football. This game has shown many changes this year. For one thing, many of the teams must rely on sophomores to make a good team and several teams, such as Navy, which was hard hit by graduation, Columbia, Georgia Tech, and Alabama, are using freshmen under an agreement reached to let these "yearlings" play. Thus the game will be more interesting and exciting because these younger players will play more of an "open" brand of football with plenty of passing and long runs.

Judging from the results of the first few weekends of the season, the outstanding teams in each section seem to be: East—Boston College, Fordham, Dartmouth, Pennsylvania, Colgate, and Army. South—Alabama, Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Mississippi State, Georgia, Georgia Tech, and Tulane. Big Ten and Western Conference—Ohio State, Michigan, Minnesota, the defending champion, and Notre Dame. Here, however, Indiana, Illinois, and Northwestern have already surprised some of the leaders and will have to be reckoned with. On the Pacific coast Oregon State, last year's Rose Bowl winner, California, and Santa Clara seem to be the best teams.

Several important games will be played this week-end, among them: Navy - Georgia Tech, Penn - Columbia, Duke - Pittsburgh, Dartmouth-Yale, Notre Dame-Illinois, Minnesota-Michigan, Ohio State-Northwestern, Alabama-Kentucky, Nebraska-Oklahoma, Texas-Rice, and Washington-Oregon.

TWO G. H. S. ALUMNAE ARE HONORED AT HOME-COMING

Two G. H. S. alumnae were among the royalty who presided over the College Home-coming activities October 10.

June Wilson, '39, was crowned queen and among her princesses was Pauline Burke, '40. The other princesses were Velda Betts, student teacher in the High School, Louise Brown and Edith Lockard.

WHEN THEY MEET IT MAY BE LIKE THIS

1.—West Virginia - Waynesburg. The Mountaineers are an off-and-on eleven. Waynesburg was tough for the University last year and might be just as tough this year. However, West Virginia must rate the choice.

2.—Glenville - West Virginia Tech. The Golden Bears are always a tough hurdle and playing in their own lair will make them even harder for the Pioneers to beat. Glenville to win a close one.

3.—Morris Harvey-St. Vincents. If reports are true the Pennsylvanians seem to have a little more on the ball than the Eagles, in spite of the fact that the latter is enjoying a good season.

4.—Marshall-Toledo. The Ohio eleven has a better all-around team than Marshall.

5.—Pittsburgh-Duke. Neither team is the once-powerful eleven it used to be. Pitt, however, seems to have the edge in scoring power and rates the choice here.

6.—Notre Dame-Illinois. The Irish seem to have found themselves after a miserable start, while Illinois is enjoying one of its best seasons since the days of "Red" Grange. A very unsteady vote for Notre Dame.

7.—Minnesota-Michigan. The outcome of this game may go a long way towards deciding the conference winner. Both have strong teams, however, not as strong as seasons past, since both have been beaten this year. A vote of Minnesota, probably on the assumption that they have more and better subs to throw into the battle.

Betty Heater, former student, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Fultner.

Incidents are to be reported to the Control Center throughout the county in order to see how efficiently each unit of the C. D. can perform its duties. The members of each unit will be marked by armbands so as to stop any confusion on the part of the public.

All lights must be turned out within five minutes after the signal is given.
