ADAMS, HARDMAN, SHREVE TO LEAD CHEERS FOR YEAR

Cheerleaders Are Active In Community and School Affairs.

The three cheerleaders who will represent the Glenville High School student body this year in leading yells at their student activities are Peggy June Adams, Betty Rose Hardman, and Don Shreve.

Peggy June, a sophomore, is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Adams of Spencer. She is the niece of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith with whom she now makes her home. Peggy is a member of the Girl Scouts, Senior High School 4-H Club, Glenville Golf Club, and Glenville High School Band. She takes part in all school activities and sports. She has had experience as junior high cheerleader.

Betty Rose, also a sophomore, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Hardman. She is a member of the Senior High School 4-H Club. Betty has been a junior high cheerleader for the past two years.

Don Shreve, a freshman, is the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Shreve. He is a member of the Boy Scouts, junior high school basketball squad. He is often known as the "midget of the tennis court." This is his first year as cheerleader.

GOOD BOOKS AT LOW COST OBTAINED THROUGH BOOK LEAGUE WITH MISS MCGEE

Ten members of the sophomore class have joined the Book League under the direction of Helen McGee, their English teacher.

Each month a list of good books is sent out by the Book League for the members to choose one. The book that is chosen becomes the property of the member at a cost of thirty cents.

Although only the members of the sophomore English class have enrolled, anyone can join.

Those who have joined are: Marilyn Cain, Jessabel McQuain, Edran Brannon, Lura Maude Rader, Nedra Griffith, Betty Rose Hardman, Virginia Owens, James Harper, Oren Heckert and Charles Furr.

NOTICE

Mrs. A. F. Rohrbough, band instructor, announces that if anyone has a band uniform which he will sell or one which belongs to the school, she would like to have him see her. Some of the band members are trying to find uniforms.

ADAMS AND RHOADES ARE JR. HIGH CHEERLEADERS

The students' choice for Junior High cheerleaders was Johnny Adams and Marianne Rhoades, both of the seventh grade. Johnny was elected by a wide margin but the election was close between Faye Kight and Marianne, a recount being necessary.

John Adams is the nephew of Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Smith where he now lives and is a well-known figure in Glenville High.

Marianne is the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rhoades, and sister of Landus Rhoades, '42.

SENIOR RINGS ARRIVE

The senior rings which were ordered last spring so as to make sure of getting them, arrived the second week of school.

The rings are either all metal or have onyx or pearl stones and come in three sizes. They are of the standard make with the Indian head on top of a G.

DRIVERS URGED BY ROAD COMMISSION TO GO SLOW AND HELP WAR EFFORT

Car owners are being urged to slow down and help win the war.

A 35-miles-per-hour law went into effect October 1 in order to curb the unnecessary use of rubber tires. The State Road Commission has been marking new type center lines on primary roads to reduce automobile accidents.

The tire-saving order put into effect by Bernard Baruch, chairman of the rubber committee, is to be strictly enforced by the State Police. Another ruling to limit mileage to 5000 miles a year is worked out too. Gas rationing is also to play a part in curbing the waste of rubber.

SUBSCRIPTION CONTEST WON BY WILLARD FRY- MIER AND JOHN ADAMS

Willard Frymier, sixth grade student, won first place in the subscription contest sponsored by the Satellite, September 18-25. Willard won a similar contest last year. For securing the largest number of subscriptions, he will receive one dollar.

John Adams, seventh grade, won second place, while Marianne Rhoades, seventh grade, placed third. They will receive prizes of fifty and twenty-five cents, respectively.

The contest was between the sixth and seventh grades. Any student in those grades was eligible to enter.

"ALL 4-H BOYS AND GIRLS SHOULD CARRY PRODUCTION PROJECT," SAYS HARTLEY

"Every 4-H boy and girl in West Virginia should carry a production project the coming year," announced Mr. C. H. Hartley, state 4-H leader, at a leaders meeting at Jackson's Mill the past Tuesday.

The objectives of 4-H club work for the coming year, as decided upon at the meeting are: Double the club enrollment of the state and stress the need for production and conservation projects.

The production projects are to include gardening, poultry, dairy, pig, sheep, calf, potato and corn projects. The conservation projects include canning, meal planning, baking, clothing, and electrification projects.

The leaders from this county who went from this county were: Miriam McQuain, Mary Alice Wagner, Jeanette Cunningham, Frances Gerwig, and Pearl Moore.

JOURNALISM CLASS CHOOSES SATELLITE STAFF OFFICERS

John Wagner Is Editor; Miriam McQuain, Jack Rader, Betty
Gainer Head Other Departments.

Johnny Wagner and Miriam McQuain were chosen managing editor and news editor respectively, of the Satellite, by the journalism class in an election the past Friday.

The other staff officers are: Sports editor, Jack Rader; feature editor, Betty Gainer; business manager, Karl West; advertising manager, Ted Fultineer; circulation manager, Mary Lila Luzader, and exchange editor, Nell Reed.

These staff members took over their duties with this issue of the paper and will probably hold these positions throughout the year.

It has been customary, for some years, for the journalism class to choose the staff for The Satellite. It is chosen after the class have had an opportunity to work at various duties in publishing the first few issues of the paper.

Last year's staff included: Editors, Earnest Lee Arbuckle, Richard Whiting; business managers, Mary K. Smith and Peggy Gainer; sports editor, Billy Hardman; and art editor, Nina Moore. The reporters were Cleonis Bond, Richard Berkhouse, Velma Moss, Ervin Schrock, Harold Wilson, Willard Yeager and Patty Furr.

The Various Camps Are Well Attended By Glenville High, Despite the War

By Anne Withers

The summer vacations of both the students and teachers have been restricted mostly to Glenville and its surroundings because of the tire rationing and the gasoline situation in the Eastern States.

Several of the Boy Scouts were at Kootagoo, the Boy Scout Camp. Those were Dick Fultineer, Joe Nutter, George Schimmel, Don Shreve, Charles Adams, Harvey Hupp, Junior King, Ronnie Bess, Bob Arnold, Bob Hardman and Scott Withers.

The State American Legion Auxiliary and American Legion had their separate camps with seniors attending them. Those attending Girls' State were Margy Jack, Nell Reed, Betty Gainer, Miriam McQuain, and Anne Withers. Those enrolled at Boys' State were Ted Fulti-

FOR A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR LET'S WORK HARD TOGETHER

The whistle blows! The game starts! Every man on the football team has a job to do and a certain length of time in which to do it.

So it was on September seventh when school started. Some students entered school prepared and others didn't, but prepared or not, each student will have to do his job when the time comes. Like a good football player, we must be able to use our heads and act quickly as the situation arises. We must not be asleep on our feet but be wide awake in order to grasp and hold on to knowledge.

If we want to make this school year the best ever, we must W-O-R-K—work together and toward one goal; that of success.

READ, STUDY, LEARN MORE NEWS IS ASKED OF AMERICAN PEOPLE

"Read, study, learn more about this war, about everyday life, about how to take care of yourself," is the request made by Elmer Davis, Office of War Information director.

This is the challenge made to the American people. It is expected of us to keep up with the modern war. We are also expected to learn more about our government, and our place and importance in it. The great problems now confronting us must be considered and studied by every American citizen in order that they might be worked out to everyone's satisfaction. One must be aware of all types of stories, propaganda, and partisan literature, to gain a real knowledge of our situation.

Therefore, let us read newspapers, magazines and books. Listen to news reports and other information, but be critical of all. Both sides of all news must be considered because of dangerous rumors. To perform or even grasp the great miracles and problems of the future one must always keep up with and above the news of the day.

FIRST THUSE MEETING OF YEAR NOT WELL ATTENDED

On September 25, the first high school thuse meeting of this year was held at the Rohrbough Stadium. The meeting was not attended very well and neither was the game the following day.

The thuse meet was held in order to give the students an opportunity to express their enthusiasm and their confidence in their team. Since such an activity is for the students, faculty and players, why don't they make use of it?

How does our team expect to win when they see the students, faculty, and even former town supporters not interested? This makes the team feel that they are not expected to win the game.

Next time, let's give the team our full support at the thuse meetings and at the games.

How about it, students and faculty members?

REMEMBER STALINGRAD!

Whatever the final fate of Stalingrad may be, the defense of that city has been one of the heroic episodes of the war. The Germans have lost almost a month already; time which is so precious to them. Then their losses in men and materials have been enormous.

Stalingrad should serve as an example to all Americans. Knowing their peril, the Russians fight on, ready to give their lives. With such an example, could not the American people do their part, which is so little in comparison!

How many will accept this challenge? Are you doing your part?

With the Alumni

Miss Eva Irene Wiant, '36, is a second lieutenant army nurse stationed at Brook Hospital, Fort Sam Houston, Texas. After graduation from G. H. S. Miss Wiant received her nurse's training in City Hospital in Morgantown, graduating in 1939. She was employed in the John Sealy Hospital, Galveston, Texas before entering the service.

Miss Wiant is an aunt of Jack Hardman, junior.

JOHNNY STUDENT SAYS:

Bernie Baruch's report to the President was certainly the coming of the dawn on the confusion of the rubber situation.

Our hopes of getting new tires or recaps are small even for the year 1943. With only three-fourths enough crude rubber for the military demands alone, synthetic rubber production will barely make the difference.

I believe as old Bernie, who really ought to know, that the passenger car mileage should be cut to 5000 miles. Everybody, excluding doctors, ambulance drivers, and such persons can cut their mileage down to this figure or even lower. Then they will find that home and the home town are nice places and should have been their chums before this.

The 35-mile speed limit would be good, too, since we could then appreciate the scenery more instead of speeding swiftly by.

It won't hurt us to save on our tires, so let's hop to it.

G. H. S. BAND PLAYS FOR P. T. A. AND ASSEMBLY

The Glenville High School Band, under the direction of Mrs. A. F. Rohrbough, played at the P. T. A. meeting Thursday night and at assembly Thursday. They did not wear uniforms. Mrs. Rohrbough said that the band will not wear uniforms for any concert work this year.

There are approximately forty members in the band this year. They are practicing marching this week.

Glenville Red Terrors Trim Sutton 25-12 For Locals' First Win of Season

Fultineer and George Register
Two Touchdowns Each in Terror Win; One of Former
On 80-Yard Run.

Glenville's Red Terrors won their first game of the season last Saturday when they out-scored a gallant Sutton eleven 25-12. Showing scoring power for the first time this season, the local eleven pushed over one touchdown in the first period and three more in the second, and rang up nine first downs to the visitors' four, to take a well-earned victory.

Ted Fultineer and Tony George each scored twice for the Terrors, one of Ted's scores coming on an 80-yard punt return in the big second period.

Glenville opened the scoring in the first period when, after a sustained march down the field, Fultineer passed to George for the score. The try for extra point was no good. Soon after he had made his 80-yard jaunt, Fultineer again scored when he intercepted a pass and raced 40 yards for another score. He also passed to Gainer for the extra point.

Later in the same period Fultineer passed to Gainer on the two-yard line. George then smashed over for the score but again the extra point try failed.

Late in the final period Sutton came to life and pushed across two touchdowns, one coming after they had blocked and recovered a Glenville punt on the 10-yard line. The other came when Morrison, fullback, intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards for the score.

BOB WHITING, CAPTAIN OF THE RED TERRORS, IS AN ACTIVE SENIOR

Bob Whiting, senior, the Red Terrors' football captain of this year, has been very active in sports at Glenville High School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Whiting of Glenville.

Although this is his first year on the first team, Bob has been out for football for four years. He plays left half-back but says that he would rather play end.

This will make his third year on the basketball squad. He is a tall, lanky boy, 6 feet 1½ inches tall, and looks like a good prospect for the coming year.

This will also make Bob's fourth year on the track team. During his freshman year he did not place in the meet at Clarksburg. In his sophomore year at Elkins, he placed first in one race and second in another. Last year Bob took first place in the mile and first in the high jump at Elkins. Then in the tryout for the State meet Bob was beaten by the same boy whom he had outrun in the former meet. Therefore he did not get to run the mile in the State meet but he tied for first in the high jump.

Bob was also on the speech team in his sophomore year. He attended Boys' State Camp this summer.

Bob says he has enjoyed all the sports in which he has participated.

SPORTS NEWS AND VIEWS

By JACK RADER

Football is back in swing again all over the nation with most of the major teams in action this weekend. On the local front the Glenville Pioneers will play the West Liberty Hill-toppers, last year's conference champs, while the Glenville Red Terrors have an open date on their schedule for this weekend.

The fighting Cardinals of St. Louis, who snatched the National League lead from the Brooklyn Bums a few weeks ago, clinched the pennant on the last day of the season (September 27) and are preparing for the World Series against the New York Yankees, American League representative for the sixth time in seven years. The first two games will be played in St. Louis, the next three in New York, and the final two, if necessary, back in St. Louis. The Yankees will naturally be slight favorites, since the Cardinals undoubtedly will feel the strain of that stretch drive with the Dodgers.

Games this week of national and local importance include: Pitt - Indiana; Pennsylvania-Yale; Cornell-Columbia; Stanford-Notre Dame; and Ohio State-Illinois.

1941 FOOTBALL TEAM HAD A SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The 1941 Red Terrors football team won five games, lost two, and tied two. The season's record was as follows:

Glenville 0	Weston 44
Glenville 0	Calhoun 0
Glenville 14	Sutton 0
Glenville 0	Richwood 0
Glenville 18	Walton 0
Glenville 31	Webster Springs 0
Glenville 7	Spencer 25
Glenville 13	Gassaway 0
Glenville 6	Burnsville 0

Last year's Terrors scored 89 points to their opponents' 69. They also won their first football conference championship since 1936. Among the boys who played last year for the Terrors, but who are not here this year are: Harold Wilson, Bill Porter, Richard Berkhouse, Eugene Barrett, Richard Whiting, Willard Yeager, and Landus Rhoades. Wilson has enrolled at G. S. T. C.; Yeager is with the armed forces.

The members of past year's Satellite staff are scattered to almost all parts of the country.

Several members are attending Glenville State Teachers College. Those enrolled are: Patty Furr, Mary K. Smith, Peggy Gainer, Bill Hardman, Earnest Lee Arbuckle, and Harold Wilson.

Those members employed in Glenville are Richard Whiting at the R. B. Store, and Ervin Schrock at Wilson's garage.

Members of the former staff employed away from home are Velma Moss at Parkersburg, Cleonis Bond at Clarksburg, and Richard Berkhouse at Baltimore.

Willard Yeager is stationed with the Coast Guard in Connecticut.

KARL WEST, JOHNNY WAGNER AT STATE MEET

"I am not so much interested in more slogans, as I am in more slugging at home!" said James M. Landis, National O. C. D. Director, at a state convention of Civilian Defense workers, held at Charleston the past Tuesday.

Principal Boggs, Karl West, and Johnny Wagner were among the 200 attending the meeting. Gov. M. M. Neely, in a short speech of welcome said, "This is the world's darkest hour." Regional Director Brown congratulated West Virginia for ranking first in Region 5 in Civilian Defense preparations.

Wheeling received the first citation of merit in this region.

K. C. Berry, First Class Petty Officer in the Navy, is stationed at Tiburon, California on the U. S. S. Aloe. Petty Officer Berry married Virginia Quin, a registered nurse of Salt Lake City, Utah, during the summer.

Ensign W. H. Berry, Navy, is on the U. S. S. West Virginia.

The Berry boys are sons of H. H. Berry of Glenville.

PEOPLE SOON TO BE ASKED FOR 100 LBS. OF SCRAP

Citizens of Gilmer County, along with citizens all over the nation, will soon be asked to contribute an average of 100 pounds per person of scrap iron to be used in the war effort, according to Donald M. Nelson, of W. P. B. This is necessary, Mr. Nelson says, in order to keep war production plants running at full capacity.

Mr. Boggs says that the school will help in this drive when it is put on in Gilmer County. A F. Rohrbough, chairman of the salvage committee, has not announced definite plans yet.

THUSE MEETING HELD

The first thuse meeting of the year was held September 25 at 6:45, the day before the Red Terrors met and defeated the Sutton Blue Devils.

Around the bonfire speeches were made by Principal Earl R. Boggs, Coach Stanley Hall and Captain Bob Whiting. The cheerleaders led three or four yells, then Captain Whiting led a snake dance back to town where the group gave two more yells.

There were those also who attended the State 4-H Camp for leaders and younger boys and girls. The girls attending Younger Girls' State Camp were Peggy June Adams and Marilyn Cain. Miriam McQuain attended Leaders Camp. State Boys' Camp was represented by Billy Rymer.

County 4-H Camp had a good group which represented Glenville High School at camp which was held at Normantown. Glenvilleites attending were Miriam McQuain, Jessabel McQuain, Eula Marie Beall, Betty Rose Hardman, Peggy June Adams, Marito Mae Furr, Jean Davis, Betty Fisher, Marian Reed, Georgia Reed, Jean Arnold, Ruth Ann Davidson, Lourena Rhoades, Marianne Rhoades, Overt Blair Greenlief, Otis Dobbins, Robert Furr, John Wagner, Don Shreve, Ronnie Bess, and Tony George.

Bob Whiting visited his father, Private Harry Whiting, who was stationed at Camp Pickett, Virginia.

Several of the other students have spent a few days at such places as Clarksburg, Charleston, Spencer, and Weston.

When asking the faculty members how they spent their vacations this information was received: Mr. Boggs spent his vacation playing golf. Mrs. Murphy insists she spent the summer at home except for a few trips to Clarksburg and Charleston. Mr. Hall spent his time teaching in summer school, clerking in a store and coaching the football team. Mrs. Rohrbough spent her time teaching band in summer school. A few weeks were spent on the farm of Mr. A. A. Rohrbough, and the last few days of her vacation she was in Toledo, Ohio.

Such places as Philadelphia and New York were visited by Miss McGee, where she saw some good plays. Miss Craddock explained that her vacation was spent at the residence of Mr. B. W. Craddock. Working was Mr. Hull's vacation. Miss Pickens and Miss Coffman spent their vacations at home, too. Miss Pickens taught in summer school and then took the six-weeks typing course at the College.
